BALTIMORE ORIOLES

SENIOR LEADERSHIP TEAM

GREG BADER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

A member of the Orioles organization for 30 years, Greg Bader was named the club's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer in September of 2023.

In his current role, Bader oversees all day-to-day business needs of the club, including Revenue, Operations, Administration, Orioles Entertainment, and Broadcasting.

In his prior role as Senior Vice President of Administration and Experince, Bader oversaw all administrative and service functions of the club and all facets of the Camden Yards experience, including ballpark operations, game experience, ticket operations, customer service, and marketing. His efforts focused on initiatives that delivered the ultimate fan experience, including the groundbreaking Kids Cheer Free program, and additional unique entertainment opportunities through concerts and non-baseball events at Oriole Park.

Bader has spent his entire career with the Orioles organization, which began in 1994 as a public relations intern. He joined the club full-time in 1998 as Party Facilities Coordinator, and has also served as Spring Training Coordinator (1999-2002), Advertising and Affiliate Relations Manager (2003-06), Communications Director (2007-12), Vice President of Communications & Marketing (2012-19), and Senior Vice President, Administration & Experience (2019-23).

Bader serves on the Board of Directors for Baltimore Convention and Tourism and is chair of the Marketing & Communications Committee for Visit Baltimore. A native of Baltimore, Bader graduated from the Gilman School and Trinity College (CT) with a degree in political science. He resides in Locust Point with his husband, John Jackowski.

MIKE ELIAS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Elias was named the Orioles' Executive Vice President and General Manager on November 16, 2018. He is entering his 18th season in Major League Baseball and sixth with the Orioles.

During his tenure, Elias has worked quickly to revamp the Orioles' player development system, revitalize the club's international scouting presence, and expand the team's analytics department. As a result of these dedicated efforts, the franchise is now flush with young talent and positioned for longstanding competitiveness in the American League East. Over the last two seasons, the Orioles (184-140) own the third-best record in the AL and fifth-best in MLB, behind only the Dodgers (211-113), Braves (205-119), Astros (196-128), and Rays (185-139). The Orioles' farm system retained its spot at the top in the 2023 midseason rankings by Baseball America, ESPN, and MLB Pipeline, marking the second straight year that they have been ranked as the best farm system in baseball by these three outlets. The Orioles are the first organization to rank No. 1 in five straight MLB Pipeline farm system rankings.

Under Elias' leadership, the 2023 Orioles finished with a 101-61 record, the best record in the American League and second-best in Major League Baseball, securing the 10th AL East Title in club history and first since 2014. It marked the first time the Orioles finished atop the AL since 1997 and their first 100-win season since 1980. The team, led by one of Elias' first hires in 2023 American League Manager of the Year Brandon Hyde, tied for the Major League lead with 48 comeback wins and avoided being swept throughout 52 regular season series for the first time in club history, earning their first Postseason berth since 2016.

Baltimore's 2023 core included homegrown players drafted and developed during Elias' tenure, including All-Star catcher Adley Rutschman and Most Valuable Oriole and American League Rookie of the Year Award-winning infielder Gunnar Henderson. Elias and his team acquired pitcher Kyle Bradish, All-Star reliever Yennier Cano, pitcher Danny Coulombe, catcher James McCann, and first baseman/outfielder Ryan O'Hearn via trades, pitcher Kyle Gibson, infielder Adam Frazier, and outfielder Aaron Hicks via free agency, and pitcher Tyler Wells in the 2020 Rule 5 Draft. Elias-era selections Colton Cowser, Heston Kjerstad, Jordan Westburg, and Joey Ortiz were all ranked among MLB Pipeline's Top 100 prospects upon making their Major League debuts and joining Baltimore's roster.

Over the past two years under Elias, the Orioles have seen an unprecedented turnaround. The 2022 Orioles finished with an 83-79 record, a 31-win improvement from 2021, and made a Postseason push, becoming the last team eliminated from playoff contention in the final week of the season. The 2022 campaign marked the O's first winning season since 2016, and their .512 winning percentage, a .191 increase from 2021, was the largest increase in winning percentage from 2021 to 2022 in Major League Baseball and one of the more dramatic year-over-year improvements in the history of the sport.

In addition to their improvement at the Major League level, the Orioles have also rapidly ascended in annual MLB organizational talent rankings, moving from the bottom third before Elias' arrival to as high as first or second overall by each of Baseball America, ESPN, FanGraphs, and MLB Pipeline over the past two years. Elias' first draft in 2019 has already produced two players, Adley Rutschman and Gunnar Henderson, who were each ranked as the No. 1 overall prospect in Major League Baseball, according to Baseball America and MLB Pipeline. Baltimore also became the first organization in Baseball America history to have three consecutive No. 1 prospects entering the season beginning with Rutschman ('22), Henderson ('23), and Jackson Holliday ('24). The Orioles' top-ranked player development system currently boasts several other players who rank among the very best prospects throughout the minor leagues.

Elias and his team have continued their work to establish the club's international scouting efforts. Over the past five years, they have signed record-breaking classes, including an organization-high 27 players in both 2022-23 and 2019-20, and some of baseball's top prospects, including catcher Samuel Basallo. Signed in 2021, Basallo competed across three minor league levels in 2023, finishing the year at Double-A Bowie. He is ranked by Baseball America as the No. 10 prospect in baseball and the No. 2 prospect in Baltimore's system. Under Elias' direction, the Orioles also broke ground on their brand new state-of-the-art Dominican Academy, which officially opened in January 2024. The 22.5-acre complex includes three full fields, a sports turf agility field, batting and pitching tunnels, administrative buildings, dormitories, and educational facilities.

In recognition of his success, Elias was voted the 2023 MLB Executive of the Year, the official award bestowed by MLB resulted from voting among the 30 clubs, the Sporting News 2023 MLB Executive of the Year as voted on by fellow AL and NL executives, and the 2023 Baseball America Executive of the Year.

Before joining the Orioles, Elias served as Assistant General Manager, Player Acquisition with the Houston Astros. Throughout his seven years in Houston, he helped to shape an Astros roster that produced back-to-back 100-win seasons, a World Series Championship, two American League Championship Series appearances, and two division titles. He was an integral part of building one of baseball's top-ranked farm systems that routinely served to furnish talent for the Major League roster and drafted several of the game's current young superstars. Elias joined the Astros in 2012 as a special assistant to the General Manager and was a key contributor to Houston's top-ranked First-Year Player Draft by Baseball America. That year, he was named the club's Director of Amateur Scouting, a role in which he served as one of the organization's top talent evaluators. In 2016, he was promoted to Assistant General Manager, Scouting and Player Development, overseeing player development, minor league operations, and the draft. Additionally, he led international scouting efforts for the club beginning in August of 2017.

Prior to joining the Astros, Elias spent five seasons as a scout with the St. Louis Cardinals, including over a year as the club's Manager of Amateur Scouting. During his time with the Cardinals, the club produced a consistently top-ranked farm system and won the 2011 World Series.

Elias, 41, is a native of Fairfax County, Va., where he attended Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology. A 2006 graduate of Yale University (Conn.), he was a four-time letter winner as a left-handed pitcher for the Bulldogs baseball team. He and his wife, Alexandra, reside in Baltimore with their daughter, Evelyn, and son, Samuel.

KERRY WATSON

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Kerry Watson was named the club's Executive Vice President, Public Affairs in September of 2023. In his role, Watson oversees the club's Government Affairs, Communications, Community Development, and Creative Content.

He comes to the Orioles after six years in executive positions at MGM Resorts International, including the last three years as MGM's Regional Vice President of Government Affairs. At MGM, Watson significantly grew the company's positive impact on local communities where MGM has a footprint, with specific attention to supplier diversity and job creation. Raised in Maryland, Watson previously served as a Governmental Relations Consultant for Alexander & Cleaver, an Annapolis-based lobbying and law firm, and prior to that, as a Senior Advisor to Prince George's County Executive Rushern Baker.

Before embarking on his career in government affairs, Watson had a 20-year career with the Prince George's County Police Department.

T.J. BRIGHTMAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF REVENUE OFFICER

T.J. Brightman rejoined the club as Senior Vice President, Chief Revenue Officer in October of 2019. In this role, Brightman focuses on business operations, revenue generation through ticket and corporate sales for the Baltimore and Sarasota, Fla. Operations, Orioles Entertainment, driving tourism, and creating local economic impact for the city, state, and surrounding area.

He originally joined the Orioles organization in 2003 and served as the Vice President of Corporate Sales & Sponsorship until 2005. He also acted as a special advisor to the partnership group from 2007 until he returned to the Orioles front office in 2019. Most recently, Brightman served as the president of A. Bright Idea Advertising and PR, the creative coast-to-coast advertising agency owned and operated by his wife, Anita.

A Baltimore native, Brightman attended the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute. He graduated from the Pennsylvania State University's College of Communications and now serves as a board member for the Penn State Bellisario College of Communications Alumni Society. Brightman and his wife, Anita, have two children. They reside in Maryland and California.

JENNIFER GRONDAHL

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT & COMMUNICATIONS

Jennifer Grondahl was named the club's Senior Vice President of Community Development & Communications in October of 2019. In this role, Grondahl focuses on building and maintaining relationships with partners, community leaders, civic organizations, fans, and the media to enhance the club's community outreach efforts. She oversees the organization's community and philanthropic initiatives, as well as the Orioles Charitable Foundation.

Grondahl joined the Orioles organization in February of 2018 as the Director of Corporate & Community Partnerships for Sarasota Operations. Prior to joining the Orioles, she served as Founder/President of Maestro Marketing & Events, where she provided strategic communication services for numerous corporations, nonprofits, and individuals. She was also the President of the YMCA Foundation of Sarasota, Inc. from 2013-16, and the Executive Director of the American Cancer Society from 2002-04.

Grondahl is the Chair for the Events Council of the Sarasota Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Sarasota Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, and a mentor for a non-profit entrepreneur with Philanthropy Tank in Baltimore. She previously served on the Tourism, Entertainment, and Culture Committee of the Greater Baltimore Committee. She was a founding member of Sisterhood for Good, the largest women's giving circle of the Manatee Community Foundation. She has also acted in leadership capacities for many charitable organizations in the Sarasota region, including Junior League of Manatee County, Rotary Club of Lakewood Ranch, and PACE Center for Girls.

Grondahl graduated from Bethany College (WV) with a bachelor's degree in political science, and received her certificate in fundraising management from Indiana University's Lilly Family School of Philanthropy in 2016. She currently resides in Baltimore, Md. and Bradenton, Fla. with her husband, Paul.

MIKE HOPPES

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Mike Hoppes was named the club's Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer in November of 2020. In this role, Hoppes oversees the organization's finance and accounting functions, including the team's financial reporting with Major League Baseball and the Commissioner's Office.

A native of Germantown, Md., Hoppes has been with the Orioles for 37 years. He joined the team in 1986 as a staff accountant after spending two years as a staff auditor with Arthur Andersen LLP, where he helped set up internal controls for the Orioles Ticket Office as a consultant. In 2006, he was promoted to Director of Finance, a role he held until being named the Vice President of Finance in 2012.

Hoppes attended the University of Delaware, where he graduated cum laude in accounting. He received his CPA certification in 1987. Hoppes currently resides in Baldwin, Md., and is active in his church including participating in the garden ministry.

CAL PERRY

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF CONTENT OFFICER

A 20-year veteran of the broadcast industry, Cal Perry was named the club's Senior Vice President and Chief Content Officer in December 2022.

In his current role, Perry oversees the Orioles' creative content efforts and is responsible for integrating the team's content throughout the organization and with club partners.

Perry began his journalism career at CNN as an assignment editor on the International Desk before being named a Baghdad-based producer, where he served as a reporter during the Iraq War. He was then promoted to Bureau Chief and correspondent at CNN, where he gained experience serving in posts around the world and covering a variety of stories. Perry also spent time with Al Jazeera Media Network as a Senior Correspondent in the Middle East. He later worked as an executive at Voice of America before joining NBC News. There, Perry served both as the Global News Editor, Digital Content and most recently as an on-air network correspondent.

A native of Washington, D.C., Perry received his Bachelor of Arts in political science and government from Skidmore College (NY).

TROY SCOTT

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BALLPARK OPERATIONS & FAN EXPERIENCE

Troy Scott was named the club's Senior Vice President of Ballpark Operations and Fan Experience in March 2024. He joined the Orioles in June 2018 as the Vice President of Ballpark Operations. In his current role, Scott oversees all aspects of Oriole Park's operation, including the B&O Warehouse. He will continue to drive the strategic and operational initiatives of the ballpark, including security, events, and guest experience.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Scott served as the Vice President of Stadium Development and Operations for D.C. United Soccer for five years. During that time he was responsible for all aspects of the nearly-completed D.C. United Soccer Stadium. Before that, he spent 16 years with Events D.C.

Scott is a member of the Stadium Manager's Associated and the International Associated of Venue Managers. He resides in the Baltimore area with his wife and their two children.

LISA TOLSON

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF PEOPLE OFFICER

Now in her 39th year with the club, Lisa Tolson was named to her current role of Senior Vice President and Chief People Officer in September of 2023. She began her career with the organization in group sales before transitioning to finance and eventually finding a permanent home in human resources. She served as the Director of Human Resources for 18 years from 2000-18 and was promoted to Vice President in August of 2018 before expanding to her current role.

In her role, Tolson oversees recruiting efforts and promoting the Orioles' culture and mission to deliver on key objectives, one of which includes fueling the local economy through employment opportunities, and gives her oversight of all aspects of the team's human resources functions.

Tolson received her Professional in Human Resources (PHR) certification through the Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM) in 2001 and her SHRM-CP in June 2015. She serves on the Board of Directors for the Brandon Tolson Foundation, which offers support to families after the sudden and tragic loss of a child.

Tolson resides in Phoenix, Md. with her husband, Patrick. They have two children: Paige and Chad, and two grandchildren.

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

SIG MEJDAL

VICE PRESIDENT AND ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Sig Mejdal was named the Orioles' Vice President and Assistant General Manager, Analytics on November 21, 2018. In his role, Mejdal oversees all aspects of the club's growing analytics efforts while assisting and advising Executive Vice President and General Manager Mike Elias in all manners of Baseball Operations decisions. Mejdal is entering his 20th season in Major League Baseball and sixth with the Orioles.

Before joining the Orioles, Mejdal served as Special Assistant to the General Manager, Process Improvement with the Houston Astros. In this role, Mejdal supported the development, implementation, and monitoring of improvement initiatives throughout the organization. Mejdal joined the Astros in 2012 and organized the team's analytics department from its inception. He spent his seven years in Houston contributing to a variety of efforts across baseball operations, ranging from data and player analysis, to the amateur draft, to the Major League team. He was a key asset in the process that helped the Astros improve their season record by more than 50 wins between 2013 and 2017, while also drafting more Major League players than any other team during his tenure. During his time, the Astros won a World Series Championship, made two American League Championship Series appearances, and won two division titles.

Prior to joining the Astros, Mejdal worked for the St. Louis Cardinals for seven seasons, spending his final season as the team's Director, Amateur Draft Analysis. During his time with the Cardinals, he was an integral part of the draft decision-making processes that led to the selection of more Major League players than any other organization in that time frame. His professional baseball career began as a Quantitative Analyst for the Cardinals in 2005.

Mejdal, a California native, earned bachelor's degrees in mechanical engineering and aeronautical engineering from the University of California, Davis, as well as master's degrees in operations research and cognitive psychology from San Jose State University (CA). Prior to beginning his baseball career, he worked for NASA as a biomathematician. He and his wife, Arati, reside in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

EVE ROSENBAUM

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Eve Rosenbaum joined the Orioles organization in November of 2019 as the club's Director of Baseball Development, and was promoted to Assistant General Manager in June of 2022. In her role, she oversees roster management, transactions, and financial planning, as well as the Major League staff, Major League medical services, and Major League operations. Rosenbaum also plays a key role in all player evaluation and acquisition decisions across the pro and amateur markets, and assists with all matters of baseball operations departmental management.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Rosenbaum spent five seasons in the Houston Astros organization, most recently serving as the club's Manager of International Scouting. She also worked for the National Football League from 2012-15 as a Junior Rotational Program Member and as Manager of Business Intelligence and Optimization.

Rosenbaum is a native of Bethesda, Md. and attended Harvard University (MA). She earned a bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in philosophy, and was a catcher on the Crimson varsity softball team. In November 2021, Rosenbaum was inducted into the Greater Washington Jewish Sports Hall of Fame. She was named to the Baltimore Sun's 25 Women to Watch in 2023. She currently resides in Baltimore.

KOBY PEREZ

VICE PRESIDENT, INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING AND OPERATIONS

Koby Perez enters his sixth year with the club and his first as the Vice President, International Scouting and Operations after being promoted in October of 2023.

Perez continues to oversee all aspects of the Orioles' international scouting operations and management of the club's bonus pool, while also assuming supervision of operations at the Orioles' training academy in the Dominican Republic and serving as the organization's primary executive contact for all levels of Latin American player personnel business.

During his tenure, Perez has presided over four of the team's most historic international signing classes. He guided the organization to the two largest signing classes in club history in 2019-20 and 2022-23, landed the first seven-figure signings in 2020-21 (Samuel Basallo and Maikol Hernández), and signed the two highest-paid international players in team history in 2021-22 (Braylin Tavera) and 2022-23 (Luis Almeyda). Basallo competed across three minor league levels in 2023, finishing the year at Double-A Bowie. He is ranked by Baseball America as the No. 10 prospect in baseball and the No. 2 prospect in Baltimore's system.

Perez was instrumental in the development of the club's new state-of-the-art training academy in Guerra, Dominican Republic, which officially broke ground in October of 2021 and opened in January 2024. The 22.5-acre complex is home to the Orioles' regional facility for Caribbean, Central, and South American player development operations, and includes three full fields, a sports turfed agility field, batting and pitching tunnels, administrative buildings, dormitories, and educational facilities.

He joined the organization in January of 2019 following five seasons in the Cleveland organization, first as an International Crosschecker for two years and later as their Director of Latin American Scouting. Perez has worked in professional baseball since 2006, working for the St. Louis Cardinals (2006-08), Philadelphia Phillies (2009-13), and Cleveland Indians (2014-18).

Born in Tamayo, Dominican Republic, Perez grew up in North Bergen, N.J. He played for two seasons in the Red Sox organization from 2002-03 and in the Independent Atlantic League from 2003-05.

Perez received his bachelor's degree in recreation and sports management from Florida International University. He currently resides in Elkridge, Md., with his wife, Johanna, and their children: Pamela and Koby (KJ).

MATT BLOOD

VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT AND DOMESTIC SCOUTING

Matt Blood joined the Orioles organization as the Director of Player Development in September of 2019 and was promoted to Vice President, Player Development and Domestic Scouting in October of 2023. His duties include overseeing the Orioles' player development and domestic scouting operations, including staff recruitment and development, implementation of player development strategies and programs throughout the entire minor league system, and First-Year Player Draft operations.

During his tenure, the Orioles have ascended organizational farm system rankings, including retaining their spot at the top in the 2023 midseason rankings by Baseball America, ESPN, and MLB Pipeline, marking the second straight year that they have been ranked as the best farm system in baseball by these three outlets. Baltimore became the first organization to rank No. 1 in five straight MLB Pipeline farm system rankings. The Orioles top-ranked player development system also currently boasts several players who rank amongst the very best prospects throughout the minor leagues.

Blood has 12 years of Major League experience and has spent 18 years in professional and amateur baseball. Prior to joining the Orioles, Blood served as the Director of Player Development for the Texas Rangers for the 2019 season. He also worked for the St. Louis Cardinals as an area scout from 2009-15 and served as the Team Director for USA Baseball's 18U National Team from 2016-18.

Blood graduated from the University of North Carolina in 2007 with a degree in economics. He resides in Baltimore with his wife,

MIKE SNYDER

SENIOR DIRECTOR, PRO SCOUTING

Mike Snyder enters his 16th year with the Orioles and his first as the Senior Director of Professional Scouting after being promoted in October of 2023. In this role, he oversees the club's pro scouting and player analysis across the majors, minors, and Asian professional leagues, as well as assisting with contract negotiations, 40-man roster construction and player transactions, and departmental hiring.

Snyder previously served as the club's Director of Pro Scouting (2019-23), Director of Pacific Rim Operations & Baseball Development (2015-19), Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2013-14), Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development (2012), Baseball Operations Assistant and International Scout (2010-11), and Baseball Operations Intern (2009). In his time with the Orioles, he has had active involvement in the amateur draft, international scouting, compliance, contracts, and salary arbitration, in addition to his pro scouting leadership that has contributed to several impact acquisitions

Snyder graduated with honors from Princeton University (NJ) in 2008 with a degree in economics, and he received his master's degree in applied and computational mathematics from Johns Hopkins University in 2019.

CHRIS HOLT

DIRECTOR, PITCHING

Chris Holt begins his sixth season with the Orioles after joining the organization in 2019 as the Minor League Pitching Coordinator. Holt again has the sole responsibility of Director of Pitching, a position he first assumed in 2020, after serving as the Director of Pitching and Major League Pitching Coach from 2021-23.

As the Director of Pitching, Holt oversees the pitching development throughout the organization. In 2022, he oversaw a pitching staff that improved its ERA from an MLB-worst 5.84 (910 ER/1,402.0 IP) in 2021 to 3.97 (632 ER/1,433.1 IP), good for 17th in MLB and the second-best year-over-year improvement in MLB history.

Prior to joining the Orioles in 2019, Holt served as the Assistant Pitching Coordinator for the Houston Astros in 2018 after stints as Pitching Coach at Class A-Advanced Buies Creek (2017), Class-A Quad Cities (2016), and Short-Season A Tri-City (2014-15). He previously served as an associate scout with the Baltimore Orioles for two years (2012-13). Holt was a pitching instructor at The Winning Inning, a baseball academy in Clearwater, Fla. from 2012-14, and a dean and physical education teacher at the Academy of Business and Leadership Education in St. Augustine, Fla. from 2008-11 while coaching pitchers at Ponte Vedra High School in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. Holt spent four years as an assistant coach for his alma mater, Flagler College (FL), from 2004-07 under head coach Dave Barnett. In 2004, he lived in Austria and Germany where he taught baseball to kids during physical education classes.

Holt was selected in the 21st round of the 2002 First-Year Player Draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates out of Flagler College (FL). He spent one season as a pitcher in the Pirates system before beginning his coaching career. He resides in his home state of Maine with his wife Shana, daughter Madison, and son Jackson.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

BRENDAN FOURNIE

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL STRATEGY

Brendan Fournie begins his third season with the Orioles after joining the club in November of 2021. As the Director of Baseball Strategy, Fournie oversees baseball economic research and advance scouting, while advising the baseball operations team on roster management, transactions, and contracts.

The 2024 season marks Fournie's ninth season in Major League Baseball. Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent six seasons with the Houston Astros, beginning his career in 2016 as a baseball operations apprentice. He was promoted to Coordinator, Baseball Operations in 2017 and Manager, Baseball Operations in 2018 before being named the club's Senior Manager of Player Valuation and Economics in 2020, a role he held until joining Baltimore.

A native of Columbia, Ill., Fournie attended the University of Missouri and received dual bachelor's degrees in finance and sport management. He received his master's degree in sport management from the University of Florida, where he also minored in statistics and entrepreneurship.

KENT QUALLS

DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

Kent Qualls enters his 12th year as the Director of Minor League Operations for the Orioles. He oversees the administration of the Orioles Player Development department, minor league affiliate relationships, the Dominican Academy, and winter ball assignments. His responsibilities also include handling Major League and minor league contracts and negotiations, player transactions, salary arbitrations, and rules compliance.

Qualls has 27 years of professional baseball operations experience at the level. He spent eight years with the Boston Red Sox from 1995-2002, working as Director of Player Development and Director of Baseball Operations. He also spent eight seasons with the Montreal Expos from 1987-94, rising to Director of Minor League Operations for the organizations. Additionally, Qualls served for 10 years as the Director of the Dan Duquette Sports Academy in Hinsdale, Mass.

A graduate of the University of Kentucky, Qualls and his wife, Irene, have two children: Kyle and Chloe. They reside in Woodbine, Md.

DI ZOU

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL SYSTEMS

Di Zou enters his eighth season with the Orioles, and his third as the Director of Baseball Systems. In his current role, he oversees development of internal baseball operations information systems and contributes to various initiatives related to baseball technology and analytics.

Zou was hired in 2017 as a Developer of Baseball Systems, a role he held for three years, before being promoted to Manager of Baseball Systems. Prior to joining the Orioles, he worked as a software engineer at various tech companies, including the Army Research Lab, BoxTone, Bridgestone, and HubSpot, where he focused on application development and data engineering.

Zou is a graduate of the University of Maryland with a degree in mathematics. He and his wife, Tina Zhang, reside in Ellicott City, Md., with their daughters, Isabelle and Rosie.

ANTHONY VILLA

DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Anthony Villa was named the club's Director, Player Development in October of 2023 after previously serving as the club's Minor League Hitting Coordinator during the 2023 season. In his current role, Villa works with Matt Blood, Vice President, Player Development and Domestic Scouting, to oversee the Orioles' player development operations.

Villa's responsibilities include staff recruitment and development, as well as implementation of player development strategies and programs throughout the entire minor league system.

He previously served as the club's Minor League Hitting Coordinator (2023), Lower Level Hitting Coordinator (2022), and Florida Complex League Hitting Coach/Complex Level Hitting Coordinator (2021). He joined the Orioles organization as the Aberdeen IronBirds Hitting Coach ahead of the 2020 season and helped at the Alternate Site after the cancellation of the minor league season due to COVID-19.

Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent the 2019 season as a player/coach in the Rangers system. He was originally selected by the Chicago White Sox in the 19th round of the 2016 First-Year Player Draft and played three professional seasons in Chicago's farm system.

GERARDO CABRERA

DIRECTOR, LATIN AMERICAN SCOUTING

Gerardo Cabrera was named the club's Director, Latin American Scouting in October of 2023. In his role, Cabrera leads the Latin America scouting process and manages the organization's scouts in that area.

He joined the orgnaization in 2019 as a Dominican Republic Scouting Supervisor (2019-2021) before being promoted to Latin American Scouting Supervisor in 2021. He previously served in various roles in the amateur scouting process with the New York Mets in the Dominican Republic from 2009-19.

Cabrera was involved in the signing of current O's minor leaguer Samuel Basallo as well as current big leaguers Rafael Montero (HOU), Amed Rosario, Andres Giménez (CLE), Francisco Alvarez and Ronny Mauricio (NYM), and Endy Rodríguez (PIT).

He played professionally in the Cincinnati Reds organization from 2005-08 after playing at Miami Dade College (FL). Cabrera received his bachelor's degree in accounting from Universidad O & M (DR) in 2004. He resides in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic with his wife, Belgica, and their three children, Jadhir, Harmony, and Hanna.

J. MARIA ARELLANO

SENIOR MANAGER, INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS AND BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

J. Maria Arellano enters her 19th season with the Orioles. She is responsible for handling minor league and international scouting operations and administration, including contracts, rules compliance, roster transactions, budgeting, travel, payroll, and insurance. She also heads the club's visa program to ensure all major and minor league players and staff have authorization to enter and work in the United States and Canada.

Arellano joined the Orioles in 2006 as an administration assistant to player development. Throughout her tenure, she has held the roles of Coordinator of Minor League Administration and Manager of Minor League and International Administration, before being promoted to Senior Manager, International Operations & Administration in January of 2022. She was named Senior Manager, International Operations & Baseball Administration in October 2023. Prior to joining the Orioles, Arellano spent five seasons with the Los Angeles Angels, including as part of the team that won the 2002 World Series. She began her baseball career with the Atlanta Braves as a trainee for the Braves Foundation before joining the Montreal Expos in their baseball operations department for the 1999 and 2000 seasons.

Arellano attended the University of New Mexico for both undergrad and graduate school. She graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in marketing research from the Anderson School of Management, and later received her master of science with a concentration in sports administration.

Arellano grew up in Hobbs, N.M. She resides primarily in Baltimore.

COMMUNITY

The Orioles' impact on Baltimore has extended far beyond the radius of Camden Yards. Over the last 30 years, the Orioles and the Orioles Charitable Foundation have donated more than $30 million to countless organizations in the Birdland community. The organization's commitment to Strengthening Our Community and Empowering Our Youth is evident by the many ongoing programs that the Orioles continue to implement year-round.

STRENGTHENING OUR COMMUNITY

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

COMMUNITY BOOTHS

Throughout the season, community booths located on the concourse at the ballpark help local non-profit organizations enhance public awareness for their causes giving them the opportunity to share their mission and secure funding for their organization. The Orioles hosted 15 local organizations at the ballpark in 2023.

BIRDLAND COMMUNITY HEROES

The Birdland Community Heroes program, founded in 2016, honors and recognizes community heroes who inspire us through their spirited commitment to extend a hand in charity, service, hope, and harmony. The Orioles recognized seven community members in 2023. In honor of their recognition, the Orioles Charitable Foundation made a $5,000 donation to each Hero's selected organization.

Among those recognized were community members from all walks of life, occupations, and backgrounds in our country, who have distinguished themselves by selflessly working or volunteering in fields that care for, serve, teach, protect, and improve the lives of others, around the corner or around the globe, who are most in need.

COMPLIMENTARY TICKETS

Throughout the 2023 season, the Orioles donated more than 27,000 tickets to local organizations, recognizing volunteers, first responders, and nonprofit groups through the MLB Commissoner's Community Initiative program.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

HEROES CORNER

Established in 2021, "Heroes Corner" served as a way to give back and show appreciation to local frontline workers and volunteers, including healthcare workers, teachers, community volunteers, and more. As part of the initiative, the Orioles donated more than 1,820 total tickets to 22 different community groups during the 2023 season. Heroes were also thanked during an in-game welcome and featured on the Oriole Park and MASN video board.

IN-KIND DONATIONS

In order to support community groups, the Orioles make in-kind donations each year to help organizations raise money and awareness for charity events. The Orioles supported more than 1,000 nonprofit organizations in 2023, donating autographed items to help raise money through silent auctions and other fundraising initiatives.

SPECIALTY AUCTIONS

The Orioles hosted four specialty auctions to benefit specific community and club initiatives this past year. Together, more than $90,000 was raised to benefit Youth Emotional Support (YES), Thread, the ALS Association, I AM ALS, the Orioles Charitable Foundation, and former Orioles player David Hess who was after a cancer diagnosis undergoing treatment.

EMPOWERING OUR YOUTH

COLLEGEBOUND FOUNDATION

The Orioles have committed $5 million to CollegeBound Foundation in support of the next Baltimore renaissance. The CollegeBound Foundation empowers Baltimore City Schools' students to successfully pursue and complete a college degree or other post-secondary option. As part of the initiative and in addition to the College Completion Program and scholarships, the Orioles provide year-long paid internships to former Baltimore City students and current College Completion Program scholars.

CEO SEATS PROGRAM

This year, the Orioles sponsored their "CEO Seat Program," a gameday experience initiative to reward high-achieving students in their respective programs. As part of the program, the Orioles donated the partnership group's seats located behind the Orioles dugout to local organizations, including CollegeBound Foundation, Building STEPS, Living Classrooms Foundation, and Girls Inc. Each group was welcomed with a special PA read at the end of the first inning.

ORIOLES HEALTH & FITNESS CHALLENGE

In 2016, the Orioles and Sarasota County Schools launched the Orioles Health & Fitness Challenge to encourage healthy lifestyles among middle school-aged children. Since its inception, more than 27,000 students have participated in the program.

The program was developed in partnership with Health Fit Powered by Sarasota Memorial to teach students about the importance of physical fitness, healthy eating, and tobacco-free living. During this year's five-week program, students in grades six through eight participate in a variety of health and fitness challenges led by Sarasota County Phys Ed teachers. The Challenge was expanded to include Oak Park School in 2017, where faculty adapted the curriculum for students with special needs.

Each program participant received an Orioles Health & Fitness Challenge t-shirt and was eligible for a special ticket promotion for the opening game of 2023 spring training. Twenty program participants had pregame field access prior to the Orioles' spring training opener. Orioles infielder Gunnar Henderson and top prospect Jackson Holliday joined the Oriole Bird to visit Sarasota Middle School to promote the program.

OPERATION WE CARE PACKAGING EVENT

To commemorate the September 11 National Day of Service, the Orioles partnered with Operation We Care to host an on-field packaging event at Oriole Park. The Orioles' full active roster and coaching staff were joined by St. Louis Cardinals players and Aruna Miller, the Lieutenant Governor of Maryland, to assemble 70 care packages that were sent to active military members and first responders. With this event, the club achieved 100 percent participation from the roster in community projects during 2023.

NIKE REVIVING BASEBALL IN INNER CITIES (R.B.I) PROGRAM

As part of the Major League Baseball youth initiative, the Baltimore Orioles Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) program has been inspiring underserved Baltimore City youth to play baseball and softball since 1989. In 2023, 630 players participated on 44 teams in games from June 1, through the second week of August for the Nike RBI program supported by Giant Food. The Orioles provided each player with Nike jerseys and hats, and each team that registered for the program was provided with three dozen baseballs or softballs and scorebooks for game play. The Orioles also provided catchers gear and baseball gloves.

Each RBI Division Championship team was recognized on the field prior to an Orioles game and was featured on the video board during the game. While on the field, they were presented with trophies and got their picture taken with Orioles manager Brandon Hyde and the Oriole Bird. The Orioles held their annual clinic for RBI players at Carroll Park. Orioles Alumni Larry Bigbie and Al Bumbry, and Orioles shortstop Jorge Mateo and first base coach Anthony Sanders, assisted with the clinic teaching players fielding, hitting, and baserunning.

PEPSI STRONGER TOGETHER

For the third year in a row, the Orioles and Pepsi Stronger Together partnership empowered Baltimore City's next generation of baseball and softball players through a variety of initiatives and programs. Through a series of strategic initiatives, including Jr. RBI and equipment collections, the Orioles and Pepsi Stronger Together gave Baltimore City youth the opportunity to play on improved fields, receive access to proper new and gently used equipment, and learn valuable life skills including teamwork, self-esteem, self-discipline, and leadership through the game of baseball and softball.

Cardboard to Leather Equipment Collection

As part of the Pepsi Stronger Together partnership, the Orioles and the Oriole Advocates held two Cardboard to Leather collections at the ballpark during the 2023 season.

Overall, nearly 16,000 pieces of equipment were collected and distributed to youth in underserved neighborhoods of Baltimore City and the Dominican Republic.

Orioles Jr. RBI Program

The Orioles sponsored the Gardenville and Northwood Little Leaguers during the Jr. RBI season, where over 300 players ages 5-12 participated during the 2023 season. The Orioles also provided custom jerseys and hats to players in the program. To celebrate the completion of the Jr. RBI season, the club hosted an end-of-season party prior to an Orioles game in July, where participants enjoyed a pre-game picnic and received a game ticket and a goodie bag.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

LEAGUE OF DREAMS BEEP BASEBALL CLINIC

The Orioles are committed to helping children with mental and/or physical challenges enjoy baseball. Last year, Orioles employees, alumni, the Oriole Bird, and Nike RBI, supported by Giant Food, volunteered with League of Dreams to host a clinic at the Maryland School for the Blind.

Former Orioles took part in the clinics, assisting students with impaired vision in using adaptive equipment to play baseball. The clinics included teaching the fundamentals of hitting, fielding, throwing, and baserunning. Athletes played in a game after the clinic and the Orioles provided goodies to participants.

ORANGE AND BLACK GIVES BACK

Each year, the Orioles employee volunteer program, Orange & Black Gives Back, completes regular service projects in the Birdland community. These efforts are focused on organizations that support holistic development for youth, as well as nonprofits that strengthen the community by addressing food insecurity and other economic and environmental obstacles.

Orange & Black Gives Back completed in-person volunteer opportunities throughout 2023, totaling nearly 1,300 hours of service. Some of those projects included volunteering at Stepping Towards A New Destiny, Second Chance, Inc., Ronald McDonald house of Maryland, Adopt-A-Family, Baltimore Community ToolBank, the Franciscan Center in Baltimore, and The Maryland Food Bank.

WEEK OF SERVICE

Nearly 500 Orioles players, coaches, and top prospects, as well as O's Alumni and front office staff completed multiple community service projects, spending nearly 900 total hours giving back to seven Birdland communities over the course of three days, spanning three states, and two countries as part of Orange & Black Gives Back Week of Service.

Each Orioles affiliate, the Triple-A Norfolk Tides, Double-A Bowie Baysox, High-A Aberdeen IronBirds, and Single-A Delmarva Shorebirds, as well as the Frederick, Md., Sarasota, Fla., and Dominican Republic, communities participated in the week of service.

Over the course of three days, the staff in each market chose which organizations to work with and which projects to complete based on the individual needs of their communities.

A few projects included, volunteers assembling a record-breaking 402 homework kits for students at various schools, 50 care packages for active military members and first responders, collecting 40 large bags of trash and other debris to help beautify parks and beaches, preparing 44 packages for pediatric cancer patients in the hospital, and concluded with a youth baseball clinic in the Dominican Republic.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc. is a unique nonprofit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July of 1960, the Advocates are in their 60th year of "Promoting and Stimulating Interest in Baseball." Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section of the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and established the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1977.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Communications and Community Development Departments. The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do, instead serving as volunteers that constantly demonstrate the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

BRIAN EBEL MBA, LAT, ATC

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Ebel enters his seventh season as the Orioles Head Athletic Trainer and his 40th year with the Orioles organization. He is just the fourth Head Athletic Trainer in Orioles history since the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1954.

Ebel began his career in 1985 when he served as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Rookie League Bluefield Orioles during summer breaks from college. He was then promoted to Class-A Erie (1988), and Double-A Hagerstown (1989-91), Orioles Minor League Medical Coordinator (1992-96), and Orioles Assistant Major League Athletic Trainer (1996-2017) before being named Head Athletic Trainer in 2018.

Ebel is a graduate of Eastern Kentucky University and holds an MBA from Johns Hopkins University. In March 2021, he received a faculty appointment to Johns Hopkins University as an Assistant Professor of Orthopedic Surgery. He is an active member of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) and served on their Executive Board as the American League Assistant Athletic Trainer Representative from 1999-2005. He is the Chairman of Major League Baseball's Electronic Medical Records (EMR) Committee and also serves on MLB's Concussion committee and Medical Advisory Board. He serves on the National Athletic Trainers' Association's (NATA) Scholarship Committee and is the Co-Chairman of the Maryland Athletic Trainers' Association's (MATA) Ethics Committee.

Ebel received his 20-year service award as a Major League Athletic Trainer by PBATS in 2017. Following the 2011 season, PBATS named Ebel and longtime Orioles Athletic Trainer Richie Bancells the Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year. In 2007, he was the Athletic Trainer for the American League All-Star team in San Francisco. He was also selected as the Athletic Trainer for the Major League Baseball All-Star Tour of Taiwan following the 2011 season. Ebel was the recipient of PBATS President's Service Award in 2012 for his work on EMR. In January 2022, Ebel was the recipient of the Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award by NATA. He was inducted into the MATA Hall of Fame in May 2022. He received the PBATS 2023 Major League Athletic Training Staff of the Year award along with his staff of Mark Shires, Pat Wesley, and Chris Poole.

Ebel is certified by NATA and is a licensed athletic trainer in Maryland, Florida, and Virginia. He is certified in Active Release Techniques (ART), Functional Movement Systems (FMS), and Dry Needling. He has authored or co-authored research papers on shoulder and elbow injuries, as well as catcher injuries. In May of 2012, he was awarded a United States patent for an orthopedic device for the foot to aid in the treatment of plantar fasciitis and heel pain.

Ebel grew up in Versailles, Ind., and has two sons: Brady and Brett. He resides in Baltimore.

She returned to the Orioles organization in November of 2006, becoming just the second woman ever to serve as the head groundskeeper with a Major League team. Sherry and Heather Nabozny, who has been with the Detroit Tigers since 1999, are the only female head groundskeepers in Major League Baseball. According to the Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA), there have been approximately 10 women who have held the position of head groundskeeper in the history of professional baseball.

Sherry was the first female head groundskeeper in Eastern League history when she was named to that post for the Trenton Thunder in February of 2004, and twice was runner-up for the Eastern League's top groundskeeping award. In 2006, the Thunder honored her with a bobblehead, depicting her riding a tractor.

In February of 2016, Sherry was named the recipient of the Mary Pickersgill Award for Women's Leadership in Business by the Star-Spangled Banner Flag House. Established in 2012, the award honors a woman who demonstrates leadership in her community, exemplifies innovation in her chosen field, and has the power to inspire others. She was also named the 2019 recipient of the prestigious Dick Ericson Founders' Award, which is awarded annually to a STMA member who effectively manages sports fields and their facility, exhibits the qualities of a true team leader, and who positively impacts the sports turf industry. Sherry, along with MLB and Discovery Education, has worked with local schools to introduce students to a variety of intriguing science and STEM concepts related to her job as Director of Field Operations.

A native of New Castle, Del., Sherry graduated from the University of Delaware with a degree in agriculture. She worked for several golf courses in Delaware and with the University of Delaware's Research and Education Center, testing new herbicides, prior to joining the Orioles in 2001 as the Assistant Head Groundskeeper.

FRED TYLER

HOME CLUBHOUSE/EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Fred Tyler enters his 53rd season with the Orioles and third as Home Clubhouse and Equipment Manager after being promoted to the position in December 2021. He began his career as a bat boy in the visiting clubhouse in 1972, and since then, has served numerous roles, including Visiting Clubhouse Assistant, Orioles Clubhouse Assistant (1979-83), and Visiting Clubhouse Manager (1984-2021).

Tyler played baseball at Bel Air (MD) High School, Harford Community College, and Towson University. As a senior at Bel Air High, Tyler was named the All-Harford County shortstop, while the All-Harford County pitcher that year was an Aberdeen High School right-handed pitcher named Cal Ripken, Jr.

Tyler lives in Arnold, Md., with his wife, Debbie. The couple has a son, Sean Duffy Tyler, and two grandchildren, Isabella and Brayden. Tyler is one of 11 children, including his older brother Jim, who serves as the Umpires' Attendant.

JIM TYLER

UMPIRES' ATTENDANT

Jim Tyler begins his 63rd year working for the Orioles and his 12th season as the Umpires' Attendant. Tyler ran the home clubhouse from 1979 to 2012 after serving seven years as the Visiting Clubhouse Manager. He began working in the Orioles clubhouse in 1962.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium, where the Orioles played for 39 years. Tyler is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who also worked for the Orioles in the past. Tyler has two children: Lauren and Joshua, and three grandchildren: Luke, Tessa, and Jack.

ANDREW GUINART

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Guinart (gin-NART) begins his third season as the Visiting Clubhouse Manager after being promoted to the position in December 2021. He has worked in the Orioles home clubhouse during Spring Training and the regular season since 2012 after initially starting as a bat boy. He joined the organization in 2010 after the relocation of Spring Training facilities to his hometown of Sarasota, Fla., where he worked in the Major League clubhouse during Spring Training and would assist with minor league clubhouse operations during the summer months. Guinart began working in professional baseball in 2007 at the age of 14 with the Cincinnati Reds during their Major League Spring Training and Class-A season.

Guinart was born and raised in Sarasota, Fla., with his parents, Oscar and Lisa, and two older brothers, Daniel and David. He graduated high school from the Sarasota Military Academy. Guinart currently resides in Baltimore City.

Married, wife's name is Mollie. The couple began dating their junior year of high school.

Has an English cream retriever named Maui Blue (@mr.mauiblue on Instagram).

He and Mollie enjoy hiking and will bring Maui Blue with them.

Wore No. 56 as a rookie. He did not pick it but it represented his mom's birthday, May 6.

Attended New Mexico State University, where he played with former O's teammate Joey Ortiz. Graduated from Millennium (AZ) HS.

Enjoys traveling. He and his wife have gone to Mexico and Hawaii.

Loves watching TV. Some of his favorite shows are Game of Thrones, New Girl, Schitt's Creek, and Stranger Things.

Grew up in Oregon and played in tournaments against current teammate Adley Rutschman. Kyle was the starting pitcher when Adley made his MLB debut.

Growing up, played catcher, outfield, and first base before making the transition to pitching.

Played football growing up. Began as a quarterback but transitioned to wide receiver as a junior in high school.

2023 NOTES

- Went 12-7 with a 2.83 ERA (53 ER/168.2 IP), 168 strikeouts, and a 1.04 WHIP in 30 starts (18 quality starts) for the Orioles; became the first qualified O's pitcher with a sub-3.00 ERA since Mike Mussina posted a 2.54 ERA (68 ER/241.0 IP) in 1992
- Had a 16.0-inning scoreless streak to end the regular season
- Finished ranked among qualified MLB leaders in ERA and WHIP (4th) as well as opponent average (7th, .215), and among qualified AL leaders in opponent average (2nd), ERA (3rd), WHIP (4th), and winning percentage (T-8th, .632)
- Led O's pitchers in ERA, strikeouts, opponent average, WHIP, and quality starts
- His 168 strikeouts were the most by an O's hurler since Dylan Bundy fanned 184 in 2018
- Pitched to a 2.23 ERA (19 ER/76.2 IP) in 13 starts at home this year, the best single-season mark in Oriole Park history among hurlers with at least 70.0 innings pitched at home
- Went 4-4 with a 4.22 ERA (25 ER/53.1 IP) in 10 starts against AL East foes, including 4-3 with a 2.74 ERA (14 ER/46.0 IP) in his final eight outings against the division

Married, wife's name is Arianny.The couple has a son, Christopher.

Born in Ciego de Ávila, Cuba, and played three seasons (2013-16) in the Cuban National Series for the Tigres de Ciego de Ávila.

His nickname is "The Rock," given to him by teammate Félix Bautista.

Although his MLB debut is officially listed as May 11, 2022, the game was suspended due to inclement weather before he could throw his first career pitch. He started on the mound in the resumed game the next day.

2023 NOTES

- Owned a 1-4 record with a 2.11 ERA (17 ER/72.2 IP) and eight saves in 72 appearances with the O's
- Named to Baseball America's Major League All-Rookie Team and Baseball Digest/eBay's MLB Rookie All-Star Team
- Tied for seventh among MLB relievers with 2.5 bWAR (min. 80% G as RP)
- His 31 holds were tied for the most in MLB (HOU's Neris) and were the most by a O's hurler since they were first tracked in 1986, per STATS Perform
- His 72 appearances were the most by a rookie reliever in franchise history (since 1954)
- Appeared in his first All-Star Game; joined Félix Bautista as the first pair of O's relievers selected to an All-Star Game since 2016 (Brach & Britton)
- Began the season with Triple-A Norfolk; recalled on 4/14 and spent the remainder of the season on Baltimore's active roster
- Tied the club record set by Fred Holdsworth in 1976 by setting down the first 24 batters he faced to start the season in order after retiring the first four Red Sox he faced on 4/26; hit Justin Turner with a pitch in the eighth to end his streak
- Set the O's record with 32 hitless at-bats to begin a season, the most by an MLB pitcher since MIL's Josh Hader (35) to begin 2020
- His streak of 20 straight games without a walk to start the season was the second-longest in O's history, behind a 22-game streak by Jamie Walker to open the 2009 campaign; faced 84 batters to start the year without a walk
- Threw 11 straight scoreless appearances (10.2 IP) from 8/3-26; surrendered six hits, one walk, and one hit batter with 12 strikeouts in that time
- Allowed one unearned run on seven hits, one walk, and one hit batter with 12 strikeouts in 13 appearances (12.0 IP) in August
- Did not allow more than one hit in 18 games from 7/28-9/4
- Made his Postseason debut in Game 2 of the ALDS vs. TEX and allowed one run on one hit with one walk in 1.0 inning; also appeared in ALDS Game 3 at TEX and pitched 0.1 inning with one hit

Married, wife's name is Samantha. The couple has two sons, Levi and Hayden.

Has a dog named Luna.

Enjoys hunting in the offseason.

Austin hit a home run at the first Spring Training game his son, Levi, went to in 2021 and the Hays family kept the ball.

His go-to karaoke song is "Friends in Low Places" by Garth Brooks.

"He's one of the toughest players I've ever been around."

– Orioles Manager Brandon Hyde, June, 4, 2023

If he could trade places with anyone it would be his wife so he could see what he is like from her point of view.

Is scared of heights.

Is from the same hometown as former Oriole Luke Scott.

Attended Jacksonville University (FL) and Spruce Creek (FL) HS.

Was teammates with current Oriole Mike Baumann in college at Jacksonville (2015-16).

Participated in the 2023 and 2020 Birdland Caravans.

Does not wear batting gloves because he would go through them quickly when he was little and didn't want his mom to have to keep buying new ones.

2023 NOTES

- Appeared on his fourth consecutive Opening Day roster
- Slashed .275/.325/.444 (143-for-520) with 36 doubles, two triples, 16 home runs, 76 runs scored, 67 RBI, 38 walks, and five stolen bases in 144 games
- Set career highs in runs, hits, doubles, extra-base hits (53), multi-hit games (40), walks, and stolen bases
- Selected to his first career All-Star Game and made the start in center field for the AL, batting seventh, becoming the first Oriole to start a Midsummer Classic since Cedric Mullins in 2021; went 1-for-2 with a single
- Tallied five straight multi-hit games from 6/15-20, the second-longest streak by an O's batter in 2023 behind Anthony Santander's six-gamer from 5/2-7
- Collected four hits and four RBI on 9/6 at LAA; since the start of 2022, his eight games with at least four hits are tied for third in MLB
- Posted his fifth career multi-homer game on 9/19 at HOU (last: 2, 9/15/21 vs. NYY); tied a season high with four RBI (also: 9/6 at LAA)

- Ranked third on the O's with six Defensive Runs Saved, per Sports Info Solutions
- Did not commit an error in 1,195.1 innings in the outfield (260 TC); according to STATS Perform, he is the 10th O's outfielder since 1954 to not commit an error in a season (min. 100 G) and first since Cedric Mullins in 2022; he was one of seven outfielders in MLB in 2023 to play at least 100 games without an error
- Ranked tied for ninth in MLB in fielder runs (2), a Statcast metric designed to use data to evaluate the performance of baserunners and outfielders in taking or preventing extra bases
- Made his Postseason debut, starting all three games of the ALDS vs. TEX and going 3-for-11 with a double, a run scored, two walks, and three strikeouts

CRAIG KIMBREL

2023 NOTES

- Made his 12th career Opening Day roster
- Entered the season as the active career saves leader with 394, good for seventh all time; also ranked among active relievers in strikeouts (2nd, 1,098), WHIP (2nd, 0.98), strikeout rate (3rd, 40.0%), appearances (8th, 709), and wins (9th, 41)
- Appeared in 71 games for the Phillies, going 8-6 with a 3.26 ERA (25 ER/69.0 IP), 94 strikeouts, and 23 saves in 28 opportunities
- Led Phillies relievers in games and innings; his 71 games were his most since a career-high 79 for ATL in 2011 and his 69.0 innings matched his most since 2017 with BOS
- Reached 60+ games in a single season for the 10th time in his career (2011-15; 2017-18; 2021-23)
- Posted 20 saves in a season for the 11th time (2011-18; 2021-23); his 11 seasons with 20+ saves are tied for fifth-most all time with John Franco, Kenley Jansen, and Jeff Reardon; trails Mariano Rivera (16), Trevor Hoffman (15), Lee Smith (13), and Billy Wagner (12)
- His eight wins were a single-season career high and the most for a Phillies reliever since Ryan Madson had nine in 2004
- Earned his ninth career All-Star selection and recorded the save for the NL in the 3-2 win in the ASG on 7/11 in Seattle (1 IP, 2 BB, 2 K); the win snapped a nine-game losing streak for the NL
- Earned his first save as a Phillie in the home opener on 4/7 vs CIN (395th of his career)
- Became the eighth pitcher in MLB history to reach 400 career saves on 5/26 at ATL (1.0 IP, BB); his 400th career save came in his 730th career game making him the third-fastest to achieve the feat behind Hall of Famers Trevor Hoffman (706 G) and Mariano Rivera (697 G); Kimbrel reached the feat in 707.1 innings which are the fewest of any pitcher in MLB history
- Had a season-best 16.0-inning scoreless streak from 6/11-7/18 (16 G)
- Named NL Reliever of the Month for June after going 2-0 with a 0.69 ERA (1 ER/13.0 IP), 21 strikeouts, and five saves in five opportunities across 13 games; marked his fifth career monthly honor
- Converted each of his first 16 save opportunities to start the year before a blown save on 7/23 at CLE; is the longest consecutive saves streak to begin a season in his career
- Went 1-1 with three saves and an 8.25 ERA (11 ER/12.0 IP) over his first 14 games of the year compared to 7-5 with 20 saves and a 2.21 ERA (14 ER/57.0 IP) in his final 57 games
- Finished the season with 417 career saves, good for second among all active pitchers behind Kenley Jansen (420) and eighth-most all time behind Jansen (7th) and Billy Wagner (6th, 422)
- In seven Postseason games, went 0-2 with a 6.00 ERA (4 ER/6.0 IP); earned one hold and went 3-for-4 in save opportunities
- Earned his 10th career Postseason save in NLCS Game 1 vs. ARI; became the ninth pitcher in MLB history to reach 10+ career Postseason saves and the third member of the 400-save club with 10+ Postseason saves
- Had been 10-for-10 in Postseason save opportunities until suffering his first blown save in NLCS Game 4 at ARI

AWARDS

- AL PLAYER OF THE WEEK 5/10/21
- AMERICAN LEAGUE ALL-STAR 2019
- AL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR FINALIST 2019

Married, wife's name is Caroline. The couple has a son, McCoy.

His dad, Alan, passed away from pancreatic cancer in August 2020.

His wife, Caroline, was a professional soccer goalie and coached at Tulsa University (OK).

Wears number 47 because his dad's birthday is on the 4th and his mom's is on the 7th.

His younger brother, Jake, was drafted by the Kansas City Royals in the 22nd round of the 2019 First-Year Player Draft.

Participated in the 2024 and 2023 Birdland Caravans.

Made a LinkedIn account in 2019 because he didn't think he would make it in baseball. Also was a substitute teacher one year during the offseason.

Attended Gardner-Edgerton (KS) HS, Fort Scott Community College (KS), and West Virginia University.

His go-to karaoke song is "Take Me Home, Country Roads" by John Denver.

Is a huge Kansas City Chiefs fan.

Enjoys coffee; had his own specialty blend at Ceremony Coffee in 2021.

Does not consider himself a good cook, but loves to grill and barbecue.

Threw the sixth no-hitter in O's history on May 5, 2021 at Seattle.

2023 NOTES

- Went 1-2 with a 2.66 ERA (7 ER/23.2 IP) with 13 hits (4 HR), four walks, one hit batter, and 10 strikeouts in four starts for the O's
- Began the season on the 60-day Injured List (left elbow UCL surgery)
- Started a rehab assignment with Double-A Bowie on 8/10 and made three starts for the Baysox before having his assignment transferred to Triple-A Norfolk for three starts on 8/25
- Made his first MLB appearance in 517 days on 9/12 vs. STL; marked his first game since leaving his start on 4/12/22 vs. MIL with left forearm tightness
- Did not allow a hit in the first 20 outs on 9/23 at CLE before Andrés Giménez hit a solo home run; became the first O's pitcher with 6.2 no-hit innings since he no-hit SEA at T-Mobile Park on 5/5/21 and the first Orioles hurler to take a no-hitter into the seventh inning since Keegan Akin (6.0 IP) on 9/11/21 (G2) vs. TOR
- Retired the first 13 batters faced on 9/29 vs. BOS
- Did not appear on Baltimore's ALDS roster after experiencing left elbow soreness

2023 NOTES

- Opened the season with Triple-A Norfolk after being reassigned to minor league camp during Spring Training on 3/27; had his contract selected on 4/13; was optioned back on 5/5 before being recalled on 5/9 for the rest of the season
- Slashed .289/.322/.480 (100-for-346) with 22 doubles, one triple, 14 home runs, 48 runs scored, 60 RBI, 15 walks (2 IBB), three hit-by-pitches, and five stolen bases in 112 games (89 GS) with the O's; set career bests in most categories including games, hits, doubles, runs, RBI, runs, extra-base hits (37), multi-hit games (26), and multi-RBI games (13); tied a career best in homers (2019 w/KC)
- Went 2-for-3 with three RBI in his O's debut on 4/13 vs. OAK; became the first Oriole with three RBI in his team debut since Jon Knott on 4/17/07 at TB; became the 10th Oriole in team history (since 1954) with at least five RBI in his first three games with the team and the first since Manny Machado (also 5) in 2012
- Scored a career-high four runs on 6/11 vs. KC
- Drove in the winning run in two straight games from 7/22-23 at TB
- Blasted go-ahead home runs in the sixth inning on 7/23 at TB and in the eighth inning on 7/25 at PHI; both homers came against a lefty after not homering off a southpaw since 2019
- Knocked in the game-tying run on a pinch-hit single in the ninth inning on 9/5 at LAA; launched his first pinch-hit homer as an Oriole, and fifth of his career, to tie the game in the eighth inning on 8/27 vs. COL; marked the first game-tying pinch-hit homer of his career and the first of two pinch-hit home runs by the O's in 2023 (also: Mountcastle, 5/16 vs. LAA)
- Credited with his first career sacrifice bunt in the 11th inning on 9/17 vs. TB before Cedric Mullins hit a walk-off sacrifice fly
- Posted a career-high five hits on 9/18 at HOU, becoming the oldest Oriole (30-054) to tally five knocks in a game since Matt Wieters (30-085) on 8/14/16 at SF, and the oldest left-handed hitter to do so since B.J. Surhoff (35-329) on 6/28/00 at BOS; collected his 300th career hit with a double in the first inning
- Ranked in the 94th percentile in hard-hit percentage (51.5%) and in the 89th percentile in average exit velocity (91.9 mph), according to Statcast
- Appeared in all three ALDS games vs. TEX, going 1-for-5 with one strikeout in his first Postseason experience

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2022: Spent the entire season with the Royals and played in 67 games (28 GS), making six starts at first base, nine in right field, and 13 as the designated hitter...Led the Royals and the AL with 32 plate appearances as a pinch hitter, a role in which he slashed .367/.406/.567 (11-for-30); led all Major Leaguers with 11 pinch hits, becoming the seventh Royal since 1974 with double-digit pinch hits in a single season, joining Hal McRae (15 in 1986), Thad Bosley (12 in 1987), Kevin Seitzer (11 in 1991), Hubie Brooks (10 in 1993), Bill Buckner (10 in 1989), and Jim Eisenreich (10 in 1992)...Slashed .321/.367/.411 (18-for-56) after the All-Star break, marking the second-highest average by a Royal in the second half of the season (min. 50 AB), behind only Vinnie Pasquantino's .328 clip...Reached base safely in a season-best seven straight games from 7/11 (G2)-28...Matched a career high with three hits on 7/27 vs. LAA, his 11th career three-hit game and first since 8/27/21 at SEA...Batted .309 (17-for-55) with no outs.

2021: Appeared in 84 games in his fourth MLB season...Opened the season with Triple-A Omaha but was recalled on 4/23, homering and drawing two walks in his season debut that night at DET...Broke up a shutout bid on 5/27 at Tampa Bay, coming off the bench to hit a two-run shot in the sixth inning; marked the first home run by a Royal who entered the game as a defensive replacement (not as a pinch hitter) since Chris Owings on 4/20/19 at NYY...Optioned to Omaha on 5/28...Recalled again on 6/22 and spent the rest of the season with the big-league club...Homered in each of his first two games back on 6/22-23 at NYY...Hit a go-ahead, two-run shot as a pinch hitter for Mike Minor on 7/20 at MIL to break a 2-2 tie at MIL; marked his third career pinch-hit home run, matching Ryan McBroom for the most pinch-hit homers in franchise history...Eight of his nine homers came on the road, with his lone home run at Kauffman Stadium coming on 7/23 vs. DET, snapping a streak of 12 straight homers on the road.

2020: Appeared in 42 games, making 25 starts at first base and six as the designated hitter...Started the season on the Injured

RYAN O'HEARN

List and missed the first three games before being reinstated on 7/27...Batted .387 (12-for-31) with runners in scoring position, which ranked fifth in the American League (min. 30 AB)...Matched his career high with three hits twice: 8/1 vs. CWS and 8/25 at STL, his seventh and eighth career games with three knocks.

2019: Made his first career Opening Day roster and had two stints in the majors...Hit his first career grand slam on 5/7 at HOU off of Collin McHugh...Became the fourth Royal to record double-digit homers in each of his first two Major League seasons (12 in 2018 and 14 in 2019), joining John Buck (2004-05), Alex Gordon (2007-08), and Eric Hosmer (2011-12)...From 8/25 through the end of the season, hit .297 (22-for-74) with five doubles, seven homers, 16 RBI, and a 1.025 OPS in 28 games; his .649 slugging percentage during that stretch ranked eighth in the AL (min. 85 PA)...Hit a pinch-hit, walk-off home run off on 9/3 vs. DET off of Zac Reininger, the first walk-off homer of his career and just the second pinch-hit, walk-off homer in Royals history, joining Pat Tabler's two-run shot on 9/12/89 vs. TEX off of Kenny Rogers.

2018: Began the season with Omaha but was selected on 7/31 and made his MLB debut that night at CWS...Hit a two-run homer in the fifth inning off James Shields, becoming the third Royal to homer in his first MLB game, joining Clint Hurdle (9/18/77) and Mark Quinn (9/14/99 [G2])...From 7/31 through season's end, his .597 slugging percentage ranked sixth in the AL (min. 150 PA)... Hit the first of back-to-back homers with Hunter Dozier to walk-off CLE on 8/24, becoming the first rookie teammates in Major League history to hit back-to-back game-tying and game-ending homers in the ninth inning or later, per the Elias Sports Bureau.

2017: Spent most of the season at Triple-A Omaha, but played his final 19 contests at Double-A Northwest Arkansas, where he homered four times...His 22 home runs combined between his two stops were third-most among Royals' farmhands, trailing only Jorge Soler (24) and Frank Schwindel (23).

2016: Began the year at Class A-Advanced Wilmington and was promoted to Northwest Arkansas on 5/4...At the time of his call-up, he ranked fourth among Class-A hitters in homers (7) and tied for ninth in extra-base hits (14)...Played for Surprise Saguaros in the Arizona Fall League; hit .291/.384/.372 (25-for-86) and was named to the AFL All-Prospect Team and an AFL Rising Star.

2015: Named the Royals George Brett Minor League Hitter of the Year and a South Atlantic League Mid-Season All-Star...Led all KC farmhands with 27 homers...Tied for the SAL lead in homers (19), despite being promoted after 81 games.

2014: Earned Pioneer League MVP and All-Star honors…Named Idaho Falls Player of the Year…Led the league in runs (61), hits (90), OPS (1.034) and slugging (.590)...His .361 batting average in 2014 led all Royals' minor league players.

2023 NOTES

- Opened the season with Triple-A Norfolk after being optioned during Spring Training on 3/27; recalled on 4/5 and made his MLB debut that day; optioned to Norfolk 5/27; recalled on 7/17 for the remainder of the season
- Went 7-4 with a 4.35 ERA (59 ER/122.0 IP), 121 hits (16 HR), 62 total runs, 42 walks, two hit batters, and 129 strikeouts in 23 games, all starts, in his rookie season; recorded seven quality starts
- His 9.52 K/9 was the best by a rookie in team history (min. 100.0 IP); his 129 strikeouts were sixth-most by an O's rookie; the 129 punchouts through his first 23 career starts are the most by an O's hurler in that span in franchise history (since 1954)
- Made his MLB debut 4/5 at TEX after Kyle Bradish was placed on the Injured List after being hit by a comebacker on 4/3; did not factor in the decision after allowing two runs on four hits and one walk with five strikeouts in 5.0 innings; both runs, two hits, and the lone walk came in the first inning; retired nine of the final 10 batters faced
- Became the first of six Orioles (two pitchers and four position players) to make his big-league debut, the first Oriole to start his MLB debut since DL Hall on 8/13/22, and the youngest O's hurler (23-140) to start his debut since Kevin Gausman (22-137) on 5/23/13 at TOR
- After being recalled from the Tides on 7/17, went 5-2 with a 2.58 ERA (22 ER/76.2 IP) in his final 13 starts; during that time, ranked among qualified AL pitchers in ERA (3rd), opponent slugging percentage (3rd, .306), OPS (6th, .590), batting average (8th, .227), and WHIP (10th, 1.10)
- Threw 22 pitches of at least 100 mph in 2023, the most by an O's starter in the pitch-tracking era (since 2008); no other Orioles starting pitcher has thrown more than one such pitch, per Baseball Savant; the 22 pitches were the fourth-most among starters
- Tossed a career-high 8.0 scoreless innings on 9/16 vs. TB, tied for the longest outing by an Oriole in 2023; at 23 years, 304 days old, became the youngest O's starter to work 8.0 scoreless frames since Zack Britton (23-141) tossed a shutout on 5/12/11 vs. SEA, and the youngest rookie right-hander to do so since Brad Bergesen (23-257) worked 8.0 scoreless on 6/9/09 vs. SEA
- Tallied at least six strikeouts in five straight starts from 8/28-9/21, the longest such streak by an O's rookie in team history (since 1954), per the Elias Sports Bureau
- Recorded a career-high nine strikeouts on 4/29 (G2) at DET; at 23 years, 164 days old, became the youngest Oriole with nine punchouts in a game since John Parrish (22-241) also fanned nine batters on 7/24/00 vs. NYY
- Worked 5.0 shutout innings on 4/23 vs. DET and 4/29 at DET to become the youngest O's pitcher (23-164) to toss 5.0-or-more scoreless innings in back-to-back games since Dave Ford (21-259) from 9/2-14/78, and the youngest O's starter to accomplish the feat since Jack Fisher (21-188) did so in three straight starts from 8/29-9/8/60
- Made his Postseason debut on 10/8 vs. TEX and took the loss after allowing five runs on six hits and four walks in 1.2 innings
- Was 4-0 with a 1.96 ERA (9 ER/41.1 IP) in eight combined starts in two stints with the Tides

2023 HIGHLIGHTS

- Made his first career Opening Day roster and spent the entire season on the active roster
- Earned his first AL Silver Slugger at the catcher position, joining Mickey Tettleton (1989) as the only Orioles backstops to earn the honor
- Named to the All-MLB First Team at catcher for the first time in his career
- Slashed .277/.374/.435 (163-for-588) with 31 doubles, one triple, 20 home runs, 84 runs scored, 80 RBI, 92 walks (6 IBB), two hit-by-pitches, and one stolen base in 154 games (149 GS)
- Ranked among AL leaders in walks (T-3rd), on-base percentage (5th), and batting average (8th); his walks were second-most by a primary catcher in team history (since 1954) behind Mickey Tettleton (106) in 1990
- Started 149 of his 154 games; registered 76 more plate appearances than any player to play in half of their games at catcher
- Made his first All-Star team; entered in the sixth inning at catcher; lined out in his only plate appearance in the seventh
- Participated in the T-Mobile Home Run Derby; hit 27 first-round home runs, including 20 in the first three minutes batting left-handed and seven in the 30-second bonus round from the right side; fell in the first round to CWS' Luis Robert Jr.; his father, Randy, pitched to him in the derby
- Reached base 257 times (163 H, 92 BB, 2 HBP), the most by a primary catcher in O's history; became the 18th primary catcher in MLB history to reach base that many times in a season and the first since MIN's Joe Mauer (266) in 2012, per STATS Perform
- His 42 multi-hit games led AL primary catchers and were second among MLB catchers behind MIL's William Contreras (45)
- Became the first O's catcher with 20-plus homers in a season since Wellington Castillo (20) in 2017
- Drew multiple walks in 20 games, the most multi-walk efforts in a season by an Oriole since Albert Belle (21) in 1999; his six intentional walks were the most by an O's batter since Manny Machado (12) in 2018
- Has tallied 66 doubles in his first two seasons, the second-most two-baggers in a player's first two years behind Nick Markakis (68) from 2006-07
- Went 5-for-5 with a home run, a run scored, four RBI, and a walk on Opening Day on 3/30 at BOS; became the first player in O's history to reach base safely six times on Opening Day and the eighth MLB player to do so since at least 1901; according to ESPN Stats & Info, is the first player to go 5-for-5 (or better) with at least four RBI on Opening Day in MLB history and just the third player to go 5-for-5 with multiple RBI on Opening Day in MLB history, joining Hall of Famers Billy Herman and Babe Ruth; became the first catcher to reach base safely six times in a game since NYM's Kevin Plawecki on 8/16/18 (G1) at PHI
- Homered in back-to-back games from 4/9-10 for the first time in his career
- Hit a walk-off solo home run off Trevor May in the ninth inning on 4/13 vs. OAK
- Launched a leadoff homer on 8/10; though coming as the designated hitter, became the first player in O's history to hit a leadoff home run in the same season they appeared in any game at catcher, per the Elias Sports Bureau
- Reached safely in his final 13 regular season games of the year; had a career-high 15-game on-base streak from 7/9-30
- Made his Postseason debut, starting all three games of the ALDS vs. TEX while going 1-for-12 with a double, one walk, and two punchouts

2023 NOTES

- Appeared on his fifth career Opening Day roster, all with the Orioles, and fourth straight
- Named a finalist for the AL Silver Slugger at the outfield position for the second consecutive year
- Slashed .257/.325/.472 (152-for-591) with 41 doubles, one triple, 28 home runs, 81 runs scored, 95 RBI, 55 walks (1 IBB), six hit-by-pitches, and five stolen bases in 153 games (151 GS); set career highs in hits, doubles, extra-base hits (70), runs, RBI, and stolen bases and tied a career high in walks
- Finished third in MLB in doubles behind TEX's Corey Seager (42) and LAD's Freddie Freeman (59); ranked seventh in the AL in extra-base hits; the extra-base hits are tied for second-most by an O's switch hitter in team history (since 1954) with Eddie Murray (1980) and Brian Roberts (2005); Roberts owns the record with 73 in 2009
- Became the first Oriole with 40+ doubles in a season since Manny Machado (40) in 2016; became the first O's switch hitter with 95 RBI since Bobby Bonilla (116) in 1996
- His 61 home runs over the last two years lead MLB switch hitters; is the first O's switch hitter with 85+ RBI in back-to-back campaigns since Murray (1982-85); has hit 25+ homers in each of the last two seasons, joining Murray (1977-80, 1982-85, 1987-88) as the only switch-hitters in Orioles history to accomplish the feat
- One of seven AL hitters with 250+ hits, 150+ runs, 100+ walks, and 60+ homers since the start of 2022, along with HOU's Yordan Álvarez, BOS' Rafael Devers, TEX's Adolis García and Corey Seager, NYY's Aaron Judge, LAA's Shohei Ohtani
- Homered in three straight games from 6/23-25 for the second time in his career and five times in six games from 6/18-25
- Tallied three multi-homer games - 5/5 at ATL, 7/9 at MIN, and 8/23 vs. TOR; now has 13 career games with two home runs; his second home run on 8/23 landed on Eutaw Street, the third-such homer by an Oriole and fifth overall in 2023; his nine Eutaw Street home runs rank second in ballpark history behind Chris Davis (11)
- Set a career high with five RBI on 5/5 at ATL
- Doubled twice in a game three times (5/6 at ATL, 5/30 vs. CLE, & 6/10 vs. KC), matching a career high for the ninth time
- Matched a career high for the fifth time with three extra-base hits (2-2B, 3B) on 5/30 vs. CLE
- Hit a walk-off solo home run in the ninth inning off Tommy Kahnle of a 1-0 win on 7/28 vs. NYY, his third career walk-off and second game-ending homer; marked the fourth walk-off home run by the O's in a 1-0 victory in team history (since 1954), along with 5/16/75 (G1), vs. CAL, 9/23/81 vs. DET, and 5/9/07 vs. TB

FULL NAME: Bruce Anthony Zimmermann

BORN: February 9, 1995

BIRTHPLACE: Baltimore, MD

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 1.129

OPENING DAY AGE: 29

RESIDES: Philadelphia, PA

MLB DEBUT: September 17, 2020

ACQUIRED: By the Orioles along with C Brett Cumberland, INF Jean Carlos Encarnacion, and RHP Evan Phillips from the Atlanta Braves for RHP Kevin Gausman, RHP Darren O'Day, and International Signing Bonus Slots on July 31, 2018.

Grew up an Orioles fan, the first jersey he had was an Adam Jones USA Baseball jersey.

His favorite ice cream is mint chocolate chip. He also makes a breakfast casserole every year on Christmas for his family.

Wanted to be an architect when he was younger.

Participated in the 2024 Birdland Caravan.

Did not know he was going to make the 2021 Opening Day roster out of Spring Training, so he lived with his parents because he didn't have an apartment in Baltimore.

Is the youngest of five, has three sisters and a brother.

Attended the University of Mt. Olive (NC), Towson University (MD), and Loyola Blakefield (MD) HS.

Is the 28th Maryland-born player to play for the Orioles. His 38 appearances rank 18th on that list.

2023 NOTES

- Opened the season with Triple-A Norfolk after being optioned during Spring Training on 3/20; would be recalled four different times (6/2, 6/24, 7/4, & 9/30) and optioned in-season to the Tides four times (6/9, 7/1, 7/9, & 10/1)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2022: Spent the season with the Tokyo Yakult Swallows of Nippon Professional Baseball (NPB)...Did not record a decision with a 6.23 ERA (15 ER/21.2 IP) in six games (five starts)...Made 15 appearances (11 start) for the Yakult farm club, going 3-3 with a 3.25 ERA (20 ER/55.1 IP).

2021: Released by the Giants to sign with the LG Twins of the Korean Baseball Organization (KBO)...Went 10-2 with a 2.18 ERA (28 ER/115.1 IP) with 91 hits (4 HR), 33 total runs, 41 walks, four hit batters, and 126 strikeouts in 23 games (22 starts)...Was one of 15 pitchers in the league with at least 10 wins...The .833 winning percentage was the best in the KBO for pitchers with at least nine decisions...Tossed a season-high 8.0 scoreless innings on three hits and one walk with nine strikeouts on 4/11... Tallied 10 quality starts.

2020: Opened the season at San Francisco's Alternate Training Site in Sacramento, CA...Would be recalled four times during the year and optioned four times; longest stint in the big leagues was 18 days...Appeared in six games, pitching to a 3.72 ERA (4 ER/9.2 IP).

2019: Recalled four times from Triple-A Sacramento to the big leagues in what was his fifth professional season...Sustained a Grade 1 left hamstring strain in his 4/20 start at Triple-A and missed two and a half weeks...Posted a 4.37 ERA (11 ER/22.2 IP) in 19 games out of the bullpen for the Giants.

2018: Completed his first season with San Francisco, going 7-13 with a 4.49 ERA (80 ER/160.1 IP) in 29 starts...Had his contract selected from Sacramento on 4/11 and made just one start before being optioned back to Triple-A...Placed on the taxi squad 4/30 and recalled 5/1...Stuck on the Giants' roster as Johnny Cueto was lost to the Disabled List for an extended period of time with a right elbow sprain...Began his big league career by retiring 10 consecutive batters before Ketel Marte hit a single through the middle in the fourth inning on 4/11 vs. ARI; received a no decision after logging 5.1 innings and allowing four runs on four hits with seven strikeouts...Optioned back to Sacramento after the game...Earned his first Major League victory on 5/6 at ATL; allowed one unearned run on seven hits over 5.1 innings...Allowed two walks or fewer in each of his first 14 starts, the longest such streak by a Giants starting pitcher to begin his big league career since Hi Bell also did it in 14 straight starts from 6/18/32 to 7/4/33...In a four-start span from 8/14-31, pitched 6.0+ innings while allowing three hits or fewer; the last NL rookie to do that three times in a four-start span in a single season was the Dodgers' Orel Hershiser in 1984.

2017: Named an MiLB.com Organization All-Star after combining for a 10-10 record and a 3.30 ERA in 26 games (24 starts) between Double-A Richmond and Sacramento...Posted a 4-4 record with a 2.96 ERA (22 ER/67.0 IP) in 11 starts for the Flying Squirrels.

2016: Began the season with Class-A Advanced San Jose and made five starts, going 2-1 with a 2.43 ERA (8 ER/29.2 IP) and 34 strikeouts...Was promoted to Richmond in May and posted a 7-7 record with a 3.95 ERA (50 ER/114.0 IP) in 19 starts for the Flying Squirrels...Finished the season tossing 15.0 scoreless innings over his final two starts.

2015: Posted a 2-0 record with a 1.60 ERA (7 ER/39.1 IP) over 11 games (eight starts) for the Arizona Rookie League Giants, Short-Season A Salem-Keizer, and San Jose in his first professional action.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2022: Began the 2022 season with the Staten Island FerryHawkes of the Independent Atlantic League...Posted a 1.60 ERA (6 ER/33.2 IP) over six games before his contract was purchased by Toros de Tijuana of the Independent Mexican League.

2021: Made his only start of the season for the Tigers on 4/3 vs. CLE, working 5.0 innings and allowing one run on four hits with three walks and three strikeouts...Marked his first win since 9/7/19, snapping a streak of 13 appearances (12 starts) without a win...Also ecame the first Colombian-born player to earn a win for Detroit...Placed on the IL on 4/10 with a right shoulder strain and missed the rest of the season.

2020: Signed with the Los Angeles Angels as a Major League free agent on 12/21/19, made 10 appearances (nine starts), posting a 10.05 ERA (35 ER/31.1 IP)...The 2020 season snapped a streak of six straight seasons as an Opening Day starter; the streak matched Hall of Famer Warren Spahn for longest such streak by a pitcher in Braves franchise history and was the longest active streak in the Majors...Was placed on the Injured List on 7/6 and reinstated on 8/5 for his first appearance and start in an Angel uniform at SEA (2.2 IP, 2 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 2 BB, 2 K)...Tossed a season-high 5.0 innings on 8/20 at SF and 9/2 vs. SD.

2019: Made a career-high-tying 33 starts in his final season with the Braves; at the end of the season, he had made at least 30 starts in each of last seven seasons, one of four MLB pitchers to do.

2018: Made 30 starts for Braves for sixth consecutive season, and held opponents to a .196 average (122-for-623), which was the second-lowest mark in club history...Struck out Eduardo Escobar in first inning on 9/8 at ARI for his 1,000th career strikeout...Became sixth pitcher since 1900 to fan 1,000 in a Braves uniform; all five previous players are Hall of Famers: John Smoltz (3,011), Phil Niekro (2,912), Warren Spahn (2,493),Tom Glavine (2,091), and Greg Maddux (1,828)...Hit first and only career home run on 8/5 at NYM, a solo shot off Corey Oswalt...Threw 6.0 hitless innings with 11 strikeouts on 6/17 vs. SD; was the first hitless start of his career; became the second Atlanta pitcher to strike out double digits in a no-hit outing (Kent Mercker, 10 in no-hitter 4/8/94 at LAD...Made his fifth consecutive Opening Day start, which set Atlanta era (since 1966) record for a pitcher; only two other Atlanta pitchers (Greg Maddux from 1993-96 and Rick Mahler from 1985-88) went four straight.

2017: Led the Braves with 32 starts to become first Atlanta pitcher to make 30 starts in five consecutive seasons since Greg Maddux went eight straight from 1996-2003...Made fourth consecutive Opening Day start on 4/3 at NYM; went 6.0 shutout innings, but didn't receive a decision...Finished 8-3 with a 3.14 ERA (33 ER/94.2 IP) in 15 road games, compared to a 3-10 record and 5.86 ERA (61 ER/93.2 IP) in 17 games at SunTrust Park...Started opening game at SunTrust Park on 4/14 vs. SD, and earned first win of season.

2016: Made 30 starts for the Braves for a fourth consecutive season, becoming first Atlanta pitcher to do so since Greg Maddux went eight straight from 1996-2003...Named to second career All-Star team (did not play in 2014 game); tossed a perfect fifth inning...Became the first Braves pitcher to start three consecutive Opening Days since Derek Lowe (2009-2011)...Struck out a career-high 12 batters twice (5/24 vs. MIL & 10/2 vs. DET)...Faced 28 batters in a one-hit shutout on 6/19 at NYM, allowing no walks and fanning seven in 6-0 win; marked fifth career complete game, the third shutout, and Braves only individual complete game of the year...Had career-best 23.0-inning scoreless streak, 6/14-25, the longest single-season streak by a Braves starter since Paul Maholm from 4/3-20/13...Earned his fourth win on 8/30 vs. SD, lowering his season ERA to 3.12; according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only three other starters had four or fewer wins with an ERA as low as Teheran in their first 24 starts of a season: Frank Allen, 1913 Dodgers (4-14, 2.70 ERA), Nolan Ryan, 1987 Astros (4-13, 3.09), and John Dopson, 1988 Expos (3-10, 2.97)...Had four scoreless starts without a winning decision, which tied Matt Shoemaker (LAA) for most in Majors and also equaled Atlanta's franchise record.

2015: Led Atlanta in wins (11), while finishing tied for first in games started (33) and strikeouts (171)...The club went 19-14 (.576) in his starts...Became the first Braves pitcher with back-to-back 200.0-inning seasons since Tim Hudson in 2010 and 2011...Earned Opening Day start for second consecutive season, winning 2-1 on 4/6 at MIA; became the first Braves pitcher to be Opening Day starter in back-to-back seasons since Derek Lowe in 2010 and 2011...Won his 10th game of season 9/9 at PHI; the win gave him double-digit victories in three straight seasons, and he became the first Braves pitcher to do so since Tommy Hanson (four, 2009-12) and Tim Hudson (three, 2010-12)...Became the 19th pitcher in Atlanta-era franchise history with 100 starts with team on 10/2 vs. STL.

2014: Led the Braves in starts (T-1st, 33), quality starts (T-1st, 25), innings pitched (221.0), wins (T-1st, 14), complete games (4), WHIP among starters (1.08), and opponent average among starters (.232)...His 221.0 innings pitched ranked third in the National League and seventh in the Majors...Named to first All-Star team after being selected on player ballot but did not appear in the game...Became the first Braves pitcher to post two shutouts in a season (4/16 at PHI & 5/20 vs. MIL) since Greg Maddux (3) in 2001; at 23 years old, became the first Brave with two-or-more shutouts in a season before his 25th birthday since Steve Avery in 1992 at age 22...Tossed fourth complete game of season 9/13 at TEX and became the first Braves pitcher to record at least four complete games in a season since Greg Maddux (6) and Tom Glavine (4) in 2000.

2013: Made 30 starts for the Braves in first full Major League season, and he became the eighth Braves rookie to reach 10 wins since franchise moved to Atlanta in 1966...On 6/5 vs. PIT, began the game with 7.2 no-hit innings before pinch-hitter Brandon Inge broke up no-hit bid with a single to left.

2012: Led Triple-A Gwinnett in wins (7) for second straight year...Made two appearances for the Braves, making one start on 6/10 vs. TOR and in relief on 10/3 at PIT.

2011: Named by the Braves as top organizational pitcher for second straight year...Made his MLB debut in a start on 5/7 at PHI (4.2 IP, 4 H, 3 R, 3 ER, HR, 2 BB, K)...Totaled five games (three starts) for Atlanta and earned first MLB win 9/8 (G2) at NYM...Spent the majority of season with Gwinnett...Led the International League in wins (15) and was named the league's Most Valuable Pitcher, Rookie of the Year, and the starter on the IL's Post-Season All-Star Team.

2010: Recognized by Baseball America as having the best fastball in the Braves farm system...Named to Baseball America's 2010 Minor League All-Star Team and was selected as the top prospect in the Carolina League...Went 9-8 with a 2.59 ERA (41 ER/142.2 IP) in 24 starts between Class-A Rome, Class-A Advanced Myrtle Beach, and Double-A Mississippi.

2014	September 16	151	vs. Toronto	W, 8-2	96-66 (.593), +12.0
2023	September 28	159	vs. Boston	W, 2-0	101-61 (.623), +2.0

AND THAT'S A WRAP: The Orioles completed the 2023 regular season with a 101-61 record, finishing in first place in the AL East and 2.0 games ahead of Tampa Bay...Finished with the best record in the AL and second-best in MLB, behind only the Braves (104-58); marked the first time since 1997 that the Birds claimed the top record in the AL...The O's secured back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 2013-14.

ORIOLES 101: Baltimore's 101 wins ranked tied with the 1971 team for the fourth-most in a single season in club history (since 1954), trailing 109 in 1969, 108 in 1970, and 102 in 1979...The O's were the only team in the AL and one of three teams in MLB to win 100 games in 2023, along with the Braves (104-58) and Dodgers (100-62)...The Birds clinched their 100th win on September 28 vs. Boston, securing their first 100-win season since 1980 (100-62).

SWEEPLESS IN BALTIMORE: The Orioles went the entire regular season (52 series) without being swept for the first time in club history...They are the fourth MLB team since 2000 to accomplish the feat, joining the Braves teams of 2022 (51 series), 2004 (52 series), and 2002 (52 series)...The Orioles have have gone 91 consecutive regular-season series of at least two decisions (no ties) without being swept...According to the Elias Sports Bureau, that is the fourth-longest streak in MLB history, trailing the 1942-44 St. Louis Cardinals (124), 1906-09 Chicago Cubs (115), and 1903-05 New York Giants (105)...Baltimore's current streak is the longest in O's history, ahead of 46 such series from 1971-72...The Birds have not been swept in a series of at least two games since May 13-15, 2022 at Detroit (0-3), and not at home in a series of at least two games since August 27- 29, 2021 vs. Tampa Bay (0-3).

FEELS GOOD TO BE HOME: The Orioles went 49-32 (.605) at Oriole Park, the third-best record in ballpark history (since 1992), behind the 2014 and 2016 teams who went 50-31 (.617) at Camden Yards...Marked the third-best home record in the AL in 2023 behind Tampa Bay at 53-28 (.654) and Texas at 50-31 (.617), and tied for the fifth-best in MLB.

O THE PLACES YOU'LL GO: The O's went 52-29 (.642) away from Camden Yards, tied with the 1997 team for the best road record in club history (since 1954); marks the third time an O's team has reached 50 road wins, joining 1997 (52) and 1980 (50)...The O's and Braves each finished with a 52-29 road record, tied for the best in MLB...The Orioles averaged 5.49 runs per game away from Oriole Park, the second-highest mark on the road in O's history (since 1954), behind 1996 (6.31).

AL BEAST: The Orioles went 32-20 (.615) against AL East foes, the seventh-best record against the division in club history, behind 61-29 (.678) in 1970, 58-31 (.652) in 1977, 58-32 (.644) in 1969, 49-29 (.628) in 1980, and 47-29 (.618) in 1979 and 2014...The Birds won the season series against the Blue Jays (10-3), Rays (8-5), Red Sox (7-6), and Yankees (7-6), the first time since 2014 that the O's have won the season series against each of their division opponents...After losing their first two series against AL East foes this season, the O's went 10-0-4 in their last 14, surpassing the 1969 team (13 series) for the most consecutive series against AL East opponents without a series loss, per the Elias Sports Bureau; the 1969 MLB season was the first to feature divisions.

THE SKIPPER: Orioles Manager Brandon Hyde completed his fifth season as Baltimore's skipper with a 101-61 record, his second consecutive winning season and first managerial playoff berth and division title...Joined Orioles Legend and National Baseball Hall of Famer Earl Weaver as the only O's skippers to manage a team to a 100-win campaign...Collected his 291st managerial win on August 20 at Oakland, tying Johnny Oates for fifth in Orioles history (since 1954); notched his 292nd managerial win on August 23 vs. Toronto, moving into sole possession of fifth in Orioles history…Earned his 300th managerial win on September 4 at Los Angeles-AL, joining Weaver (1,480), Buck Showalter (669), Paul Richards (517), and Hank Bauer (407) as managers with 300 wins in an O's uniform...Managed his 700th game with the Orioles on September 22 at Cleveland, joining Weaver (2,541), Showalter (1,353), Richards (1,063), and Bauer (726) as Orioles managers to reach 700 career games; also served one game as acting manager for the Marlins on June 19, 2011...He was named the 20th manager in Orioles history prior to the 2019 campaign.

GOING STREAKING: Baltimore's longest winning streak of the season was eight games in a row from July 5-16, the club's longest since a 10-gamer from July 3-13, 2022...It was the tied for the second-longest winning streak by an AL club in 2023, behind Tampa Bay's 13-game streak to start the season, and tied for the seventh-longest winning streak in MLB...The O's also won seven in a row from April 16-24 and from September 2-9; the Orioles (3x) were one of five teams with multiple winning streaks of at least seven games in 2023, along with the Braves (4x) and the Giants, Mariners, and Rays (2x).

ALLOW ME TO REINTRODUCE MYSELF: The Orioles used a total of 50 players in 2023 (28 pitchers and 22 position players), their fewest in a full season since also using 50 in 2017 (26 pitchers and 24 position players).

WELCOME TO THE SHOW: Six players made their Major League debuts for the O's in 2023 (2 pitchers and 4 position players)...Five of the players who made their debuts finished the season on Baltimore's 40-man roster: Colton Cowser, Heston Kjerstad, Joey Ortiz, Grayson Rodriguez, and Jordan Westburg; Kjerstad, Rodriguez, and Westburg finished the season on the active roster and appeared on Baltimore's ALDS roster...Rodriguez (No. 7), Cowser (No. 14), Kjerstad (No. 24), Westburg (No. 34), and Ortiz (No. 91) were ranked among MLB Pipeline's Top 100 prospects at the time of their debuts.

Anthony Santander hit a walk-off home run in the bottom of the ninth in Baltimore's 1-0 win over the Yankees on July 28, the fourth walk-off home run by the Orioles in a 1-0 victory in team history, along with May 16 (G1), 1975 vs. California (Grich), September 23, 1981 vs. Detroit (Dwyer), and May 9, 2007 vs. Tampa Bay (Huff).

Gunnar Henderson hit a leadoff home run in the bottom of the first in Baltimore's 1-0 win over the Nationals on September 26; marked the second time in team history that the O's won a 1-0 game with the only run scoring on a leadoff homer, joining August 3, 2014 vs. Seattle (Markakis), as well as the 29th occurrence in MLB since 1900 and first since Philadelphia did so on June 6, 2023 vs. Detroit (Schwarber).

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

STRIKE A POSE: The Orioles set a single-season franchise record with 1,431 strikeouts…On September 6 at Los Angeles-AL, RHP Kyle Gibson struck out Matt Thaiss swinging in the fourth inning to record Baltimore's 1,249th strikeout of the season, surpassing the mark of 1,248 set in 2016 and matched in 2019.

On July 30 vs. New York-AL, five Baltimore pitchers combined to strike out 18 batters, the most in a nine-inning game in Orioles history.

Starting pitchers struck out 817 batters, surpassing the 1968 rotation (747) for the most in a single season in team history.

Relievers fanned 614 hitters in 2023, third-most in one year in O's history behind 2021 (637) and 2019 (625).

RUN IT UP: The Orioles scored 807 runs, the seventh-most in a single season in club history (since 1954) and most since scoring 842 in 2004...Baltimore's +129 run differential was the club's best since 1997 (+131) and tied with the 1975 team for 10th in O's history.

COMEBACK KIDS: The Orioles led the AL with 48 comeback wins, tied with the Reds for the most in MLB...Baltimore's 84 comeback wins since the start of 2022 are the most in the AL and second in MLB, behind the Dodgers (86).

WAKE ME UP WHEN SEPTEMBER ENDS: The Orioles secured a winning record in each full calendar month for the first time since 1983, per the Elias Sports Bureau.

HIT PARADE: On September 2 at Arizona, Baltimore recorded seven straight hits as part of a six-run fourth inning...According to the Elias Sports Bureau, that marks the most consecutive plate appearances with a hit by the Orioles since the fourth inning on June 25, 2015 at Boston (also 7) and one shy of the team record set in the first inning on May 18, 1990 vs. Texas.

MOUNT UP: On April 11 vs. Oakland, Ryan Mountcastle became the third player in Orioles history with nine RBI in a game, tying Jim Gentile (5/9/61 at MIN) and Eddie Murray (8/26/85 at CAL) for the team record.

KING IN THE NORTH: Ryan Mountcastle went 11-for-13 with four doubles, five runs scored, six RBI, three walks, and one stolen base during the four-game set in Toronto from July 31 to August 3...The 11 hits are tied with Merv Rettenmund (September 24-26, 1971 at Cleveland) for the most in a four-game series since the Orioles moved to Baltimore in 1954.

HE GETS ON BASE: Ryan Mountcastle had a career-long 28-game on-base streak from July 21 to August 23, the longest by an Oriole since Nick Markakis had a 38-game on-base streak from July 5 to August 18, 2009.

ARE YOU NOT ENTERTAINED: Cedric Mullins became the seventh player in Orioles history to hit for the cycle on May 12 vs. Pittsburgh...Mullins capped off his historic night with a three-run homer in the eighth inning after singling in the third, tripling in the fifth, and doubling in the seventh.

SPIN CYCLE

Cycles in Orioles History (since 1954)

Cedric Mullins	5/12/23 vs. PIT

YOUNG GUNN: On August 20 at Oakland, Gunnar Henderson went 4-for-5 with two doubles, one triple, one home run, three runs, and two RBI, finishing a single shy of becoming the eighth player in O's history to hit for the cycle...According to MLB.com's Sarah Langs (@SlangsOnSports), Henderson recorded the 44th individual game in MLB history with multiple doubles, a triple, and a home run, and the first such game since New York-NL's David Wright on June 23, 2013 at Philadelphia; at 22 years, 52 days old, Henderson was the second-youngest player with such a game, after Detroit's Al Kaline, who accomplished the feat at 21 years, 194 days old on June 30, 1956 at Kansas City...The only other Oriole to post such a stat line was Don Baylor on April 6, 1973 vs. Milwaukee...Henderson also became the first Oriole with four extra-base hits in a game since Melvin Mora on August 17, 2008 at Detroit, as well as the youngest, breaking the mark held by Cal Ripken, Jr., who did so at 23 years, 10 days old on September 3, 1983 at Minnesota.

EMPIRE STATE OF MIND: Gunnar Henderson recorded his first career leadoff home run and set career bests with four hits and five RBI on July 6 at New York-AL...He also matched career highs reaching safely four times and scoring three runs...He's the fifth O's rookie (sixth occurrence) with a leadoff home run, joining Cedric Mullins (2x), Matt Angle, Ryan Flaherty, and Joey Rickard... Became the fourth Orioles rookie with four hits and at least two homers in a game, joining Curt Blefary, Ryan Mountcastle, and Chris Richard...Also became the first MLB player with four hits and two home runs in the first four innings of a game since Matt Carpenter did so for St. Louis on July 20, 2018 at Chicago-NL.

I GOT FIVE ON IT: Adley Rutschman went 5-for-5 with a home run, a run scored, four RBI, and a walk in his first Opening Day action on March 30 at Boston...The five hits, four RBI, and six times reaching base safely all marked career highs...Became the first player in O's history to reach base safely six times on Opening Day, and the eighth MLB player to do so since at least 1901, per Baseball Reference...Became the first catcher to reach base safely six times in a game since New York-NL's Kevin Plawecki on August 16, 2018 (G1) at Philadelphia...Became the first O's catcher to homer on Opening Day since Matt Wieters on April 2, 2013 at Tampa Bay, as well as the first O's catcher to record five hits in a game since Wieters on August 14, 2016 at San Francisco...According to ESPN Stats & Info, he became the first player to go 5-for-5 (or better) with at least four RBI on Opening Day in MLB history; he's just the third player to go 5-for-5 and record multiple RBI on Opening Day, along with Hall of Famers Billy Herman and Babe Ruth.

MLB FIRST-YEAR PLAYER DRAFT: The Orioles selected 22 players in the 2023 First-Year Player Draft: 13 pitchers and nine position players, with 20 of the selections being college athletes and two from the high school ranks…The Orioles selected 12 right-handed pitchers, one left-handed pitcher, six outfielders, two infielders, and one catcher…The Orioles signed 19 players from the 2023 Draft: 12 pitchers and seven position players, with all of the signees being college athletes…The Orioles signed 11 right-handed pitchers, one left-handed pitcher, five outfielders, one infielder, and one catcher.

The Orioles selected CF Enrique Bradfield, Jr. from Vanderbilt University (TN) with their first selection as the 17th overall pick of the 2023 Draft.

DEADLINE DEALS: The Orioles made two trades prior to the 2023 Trade Deadline:

On August 1, the Orioles acquired RHP Jack Flaherty from the St. Louis Cardinals in exchange for LHP Drew Rom, minor league INF César Prieto, and minor league RHP Zack Showalter.

On July 19, the Orioles acquired RHP Shintaro Fujinami from the Oakland Athletics in exchange for minor league LHP Easton Lucas.

THE BALLPARK THAT FOREVER CHANGED BASEBALL: The Orioles drew 1,936,798 fans in 81 regular-season dates at Oriole Park, the largest annual attendance at Camden Yards since drawing 2,028,424 fans in 81 dates in 2017...According to Baseball Reference, the Orioles (+568,431) had the third-largest year-over-year attendance increase in MLB from 2022-23, behind the Phillies (+775,869) and Reds (+642,532)...On average, the O's drew 7,018 more fans per game in 2023 than in 2022...During the regular season, the club saw six sellouts, with the largest crowd coming for the home opener on Friday, April 7 (45,017) and second-highest on Saturday, August 5 (44,326)...Postseason baseball returned to Camden Yards in 2023, hosting Games 1 and 2 of the ALDS on Saturday, October 7, and Sunday, October 8; both games were sellouts, totaling 92,925 fans across the weekend.

RAIN, RAIN, GO AWAY: The Orioles had 18 games impacted by weather or other environmental factors in 2023, with two postponements, 15 weather delays (one game had multiple delays), and one game delayed by bees...The Orioles spent 20 hours, 53 minutes in delays, after spending 16 hours, 56 minutes in delays in 2022...Baltimore's originally scheduled Home Opener against the Yankees on April 6 was postponed and rescheduled for April 7...It was the first time the Orioles had their Home Opener postponed since 1997 vs. Kansas City (the 1996 opener was also postponed).

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

2023 AWARDS

AL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR: Gunnar Henderson was unanimously voted the Baseball Writers' Association of America (BBWAA) American League Rookie of the Year, becoming the first unanimous winner in Orioles history...He is the seventh Orioles player to win the award, joining Gregg Olson (1989), Cal Ripken, Jr. (1982), Eddie Murray (1977), Al Bumbry (1973), Curt Blefary (1965), and Ron Hansen (1960)...Given to the top rookie-eligible players in both leagues, the Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year Awards are voted upon by the BBWAA prior to the beginning of the Postseason and are based on a weighted points system...Henderson finished ahead of fellow AL finalists Tanner Bibee (CLE) and Triston Casas (BOS)...He was also named AL Rookie of the Year by the Sporting News and Players Choice AL Outstanding Rookie, both of which were voted on by his peers, and to Baseball America's Major League All-Rookie Team.

AL MANAGER OF THE YEAR: Brandon Hyde was voted the BBWAA American League Manager of the Year...He is the fourth Orioles manager to win the award, joining Buck Showalter (2014), Davey Johnson (1997), and Frank Robinson (1989)...Since 1983, the BBWAA has voted for the top managers in each league...Ballots are submitted prior to the beginning of the Postseason and are based on a weighted points system...Hyde finished ahead of fellow AL finalists Bruce Bochy (TEX) and Kevin Cash (TB)...He was also voted the Sporting News AL Manager of the Year by fellow American League managers for the second consecutive year.

BBWAA AWARDS NOTES: This marks the third time the Orioles have had two national BBWAA Award winners in the same year...In 1989, Gregg Olson was named AL Rookie of the Year while Frank Robinson was named AL Manager of the Year...In 1973, Al Bumbry was named AL Rookie of the Year and Jim Palmer won AL Cy Young.

AL RELIEVER OF THE YEAR: Félix Bautista was unanimously voted the Mariano Rivera American League Reliever of the Year by the voting panel, which was comprised of six all-time great relievers...He is the second Orioles player to win the award, joining left-hander Zack Britton in 2016...Bautista and Milwaukee's Devin Williams, the Trevor Hoffman National League Reliever of the Year Award winner, will each receive a special trophy that models the likeness of Rivera and Hoffman, respectively, pitching during their Hall of Fame careers...The Rivera and Hoffman Awards replaced MLB's "Delivery Man of the Year Award," which was presented to one winner in all of Major League Baseball from 2005-2013...These awards continue a longstanding baseball tradition of honoring the game's top relief pitchers...Bautista finished ahead of AL runners-up Emmanuel Clase (CLE) and Jordan Romano (TOR)...He was also named the Baseball Digest/eBay MLB Relief Pitcher of the Year.

MLB EXECUTIVE OF THE YEAR: Orioles Executive Vice President and General Manager Mike Elias was voted the MLB Executive of the Year...The official award bestowed by MLB resulted from voting among the 30 clubs, each of which cast a vote prior to the start of the Postseason...MLB began its official Executive of the Year Award at the conclusion of the 2018 season, with Billy Beane of the Oakland Athletics earning the inaugural honors, followed by Erik Neander of the Tampa Bay Rays in 2019, Andrew Friedman of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 2020, Farhan Zaidi of the San Francisco Giants in 2021, and Chris Antonetti of the Cleveland Guardians in 2022...Elias was also voted the Sporting News 2023 MLB Executive of the Year by fellow AL and NL executives.

SILVER SLUGGER WINNERS AND FINALISTS: Gunnar Henderson (Utility) and Adley Rutschman (C) were named recipients of the 2023 American League Silver Slugger Award, the top offensive award in Major League Baseball...Anthony Santander (OF) was tabbed as a finalist but was not selected as a winner...The winners are selected by a vote of MLB managers and coaches, who cast ballots for the players they determine to be the best offensive producers at each position in their respective league...Louisville Slugger has presented the Silver Slugger Awards annually since 1980.

GOLD GLOVE FINALISTS: Austin Hays (LF), Ryan Mountcastle (1B), and Adley Rutschman (C) were named 2023 AL Rawlings Gold Glove Award Finalists.

ALL-MLB TEAM: Félix Bautista (RP) and Adley Rutschman (C) were named to the All-MLB First Team...Kyle Bradish (SP) was named to the All-MLB Second Team...This marked the first career All-MLB Team honors for Bautista, Bradish, and Rutschman.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE: Gunnar Henderson was voted the winner of the 2023 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award by members of the local media who cover the team on a regular basis...He became the fourth rookie to be named the winner of the award since its inception in 1954 and second in a row, following Adley Rutschman in 2022...He also joined right-handed pitchers Gregg Olson in 1989 and Rodrigo López in 2002.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE NOMINEE: Kyle Gibson was named the Orioles' 2023 nominee for the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award, presented by Capital One...Marked the third career nomination for Gibson (2019, 2022)...The most prominent individual player award bestowed by MLB, the Roberto Clemente Award is the annual recognition of a player from each club who best represents the game of baseball through extraordinary character, sportsmanship, community involvement, philanthropy, and positive contributions, both on and off the field.

HEART AND HUSTLE NOMINEE: Anthony Santander was named the Orioles' 2023 nominee for the Heart and Hustle Award, presented by the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association (MLBPAA)...Marked the first career nomination for Santander...The esteemed award honors active players who demonstrate a passion for the game of baseball and best embody the values, spirit, and traditions of the game.

AL RELIEVER OF THE MONTH: Félix Bautista was voted the American League Reliever of the Month for April, June, and July, becoming the first Oriole to win the award multiple times; Jim Johnson (May 2012) was the only other Oriole to win the award...April marked Bautista's first career monthly award...He made 14 appearances, including his outing on Opening Day on March 30 at Boston, and pitched to a 2-1 record with seven saves in nine opportunities with a 1.32 ERA (2 ER/13.2 IP) and 25 strikeouts...For the month, his seven saves were tied for third in the AL and fifth in MLB...In June, Bautista pitched to a 0.84 ERA (1 ER/10.2 IP) and 0.56 WHIP in 10 games, earning seven saves in eight opportunities...In July, Bautista did not allow a run and registered a win or a save in all 11 appearances, going 3-0 with eight saves and 25 strikeouts in 14.0 innings.

AL ROOKIE OF THE MONTH: Gunnar Henderson was voted the American League Rookie of the Month for June...Marked Henderson's first career monthly honor and the first Orioles winner since Ryan Mountcastle in June 2021...Overall, he is the sixth Oriole to claim the award, also joining Reynaldo Lopez (July 2002), Nick Markakis (August 2006), Nolan Reimold (June 2009), and Brian Matusz (August 2010)...In 20 June games, Henderson slashed .320/.354/.640 (24-for-75) with four doubles, one triple, six home runs, 10 runs scored, 16 RBI, four walks, and three stolen bases.

- For the month, he led AL rookies in home runs, RBI, slugging, and OPS (.994)
- Ranked among AL rookie leaders in June in total bases (2nd, 48), extra-base hits (T-2nd, 11), triples (T-2nd), average (3rd), runs (T-5th), stolen bases (T-5th), on-base percentage (6th), hits (T-6th), and doubles (T-8th).
- His 93.1 mph average exit velocity for the month led all rookies and ranked eighth in the AL (min. 75 AB)
- Homered in three straight games for the first time in his career from June 10-13; his 462-foot Eutaw Street home run on June 11 vs. Kansas City marked the longest homer by an O's rookie in the Statcast era.
- Slugged his first career grand slam in an 11-6 victory on June 13 vs. Toronto, becoming the 17th rookie in O's history to hit a grand slam and the first since Mountcastle on May 22, 2021 at Washington.

AL PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Gunnar Henderson was named the American League Player of the Week for June 5-11...Marked Henderson's first career weekly honor and the first Orioles winner since Ryan Mountcastle in June 2021...Slashed .526/.550/1.053 (10-for-19) with one double, three home runs, five runs, six RBI, one walk, and two stolen bases in five games, hitting safely in each of them...Led the AL in batting, slugging, and on-base percentage.

ELECTRIC PLAYS OF THE WEEK: Orioles players received MLB Network's Electric Play of the Week seven times in 2023: Cedric Mullins (4x), Gunnar Henderson (2x), and Austin Hays (1x)...Mullins' five career Play of the Week awards are the most since the award was introduced in 2019; no other player has won more than three...Baltimore's 11 Electric Play of the Week awards since 2019 are the most of any MLB team.

ALL STARS: The Orioles sent right-handed relievers Félix Bautista and Yennier Cano, outfielder Austin Hays, and catcher Adley Rutschman to the All-Star Game at T-Mobile Park in Seattle, the first time with multiple selections since 2016 (5)...Marked the first All-Star appearance for each player...Hays started in center field and batted seventh, the first Oriole to start a Midsummer Classic since Cedric Mullins in 2021...Rutschman participated in the Home Run Derby and hit 27 homers in the first round, including 20 left handed in his three minutes and seven right handed in the 30-second bonus, but fell to Chicago-AL's Luis Robert Jr.

TIE GAMES

The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and eight others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect. Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-3, Milwaukee Brewers-1, and Texas Rangers-1.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

2023 PLAYER DEVELOPMENT AND SCOUTING AWARDS

The Orioles named 2B/SS Jackson Holliday as the Brooks Robinson Minor League Player of the Year and RHP Chayce McDermott as the Jim Palmer Minor League Pitcher of the Year.

Holliday spent time across four levels in 2023, slashing .323/.442/.499 (154-for-477) with 30 doubles, nine triples, 12 homers, 113 runs scored, 75 RBI, 101 walks, and 24 stolen bases in 125 regular season games between Single-A Delmarva, High-A Aberdeen, Double-A Bowie, and Triple-A Norfolk. He led the minors in runs scored, becoming the first O's minor leaguer since 2005 to accomplish the feat, and ranked among qualified full-season minor leaguers in on-base percentage (5th) and walks (T-5th). Holliday led the organization in batting average, on-base percentage, runs, triples, and walks while ranking among the leaders in hits (2nd), OPS (3rd, .941), slugging percentage (4th), total bases (4th, 238), and doubles (T-4th). He represented the organization at the SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game, won South Atlantic League and O's Minor League Player of the Month in May, and was named Player of the Week in the Carolina League for the period of April 17-23 and in the South Atlantic League for the period of May 15-21. Holliday was named the Baseball America Minor League Player of the Year, marking the second straight year an Oriole earned the honor (Gunnar Henderson). He was also named the MiLB Hitting Prospect of the Year as part of the MiLB Awards. Baltimore selected him No. 1 overall in the 2022 First-Year Player Draft out of Stillwater High School (OK). He enters the 2024 season as the top-ranked MLB prospect by The Athletic, Baseball America, Baseball Prospectus, ESPN, FanGraphs, and MLB Pipeline.

McDermott wrapped up his first full season in the Orioles system, posting an 8-8 record with one save and a 3.10 ERA (41 ER/119.0 IP) with 69 hits, 44 total runs, nine home runs, five hit batters, 68 walks, and 152 strikeouts while holding opponents to an MiLB-best .167 average (69-for-413) in 26 games (22 GS) across Double-A Bowie and Triple-A Norfolk. He ranked among all Orioles minor leaguers in strikeouts (2nd), ERA (2nd), wins (T-2nd), starts (3rd), WHIP (3rd, 1.15), and innings (4th). He was twice named International League Pitcher of the Week, earning it in consecutive weeks from July 24-30 and July 31-August 6, and also won the organization's Pitcher of the Month award in August. The Orioles acquired him at the 2022 trade deadline as part of a three-team trade with Houston and Tampa Bay after being drafted by the Astros in the fourth round of the 2021 First-Year Player Draft out of Ball State University (IN). He enters the 2024 season as the O's No. 10 prospect according to MLB Pipeline and No. 14 by Baseball America.

Triple-A Norfolk Manager Buck Britton was named the winner of the Cal Ripken, Sr. Player Development Award. Britton led the Tides to the franchise's second Triple-A National Championship following their 7-6 victory over the Oklahoma City Dodgers. Norfolk also claimed the International League Championship after besting Durham in a three-game series. The Tides secured the best record in the league after going 90-59 (.604) under Britton and set a franchise record for most wins in a season. This season marked Britton's second year as skipper for Norfolk and his sixth overall as a coach or manager in the O's organization after playing nine years, including his first seven in Baltimore's system. This marked his second time receiving the award after earning the honor in 2021 as manager for Double-A Bowie. He is the third multi-time recipient since the award's inception in 2003, joining Mike Griffin (2009-10) and the late Ron Johnson (2015, 2018). In addition to receiving this organizational honor, Britton was named the International League Manager of the Year.

Area Scout Dave Jennings was named the Jim Russo Scout of the Year, named in honor of the man who spent 33 years in various scouting capacities with the Orioles beginning with their move from St. Louis in 1954. This marked the second time in his career that Jennings earned the distinction after also being named the award winner in 2013. Jennings has been in the organization since 2002, proving to be an important member of the scouting operations as he patrols Alabama, Louisiana, and Mississippi. Some of his recent signees include current Major Leaguers Gunnar Henderson (John T. Morgan Academy, Ala.) and Jordan Westburg (Mississippi State), current minor leaguers Hudson Haskin (Tulane, La.), Reed Trimble (Southern Mississippi), and Collin Burns (Tulane, La.), as well as former first-round selections Kevin Gausman (2012, Louisiana State University), Matt Wieters (2007, Georgia Tech), and Nick Markakis (2003, Young Harris College, Ga.).

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

ORIOLES DRAFT NOTES

The 2024 First-Year Player Draft will be held in Arlington, Texas during All-Star Week from July 15-18. This year, the Orioles will have the No. 22 overall pick. Since the First-Year Player Draft began in 1965, 37 of Baltimore's 57 first-round selections have gone on to appear in the Major Leagues. Of those 37 players, 31 made their Major League debut with the Orioles.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES DOMINICAN REPUBLIC BASEBALL ACADEMY

On January 16, 2024, the Orioles officially opened their new state-of-the-art Baltimore Orioles Dominican Republic Baseball Academy. The 22.5-acre complex is home to the Orioles' regional facility for Caribbean, Central, and South American player development operations, which includes three full fields, a sports-turf agility field, batting and pitching tunnels, administrative buildings, dormitories, and educational facilities. The complex houses more than 100 players, coaches, and staff, providing dormitory-style rooms and entertainment spaces, and features three classrooms and a computer lab, which provides on-site learning and an education plan for each player, as well as a dining room that offers daily nutritious meals.

The project was led by landowner and developer Brian Mejia of Brison SRL. The Orioles were represented by renowned Dominican academy architect, José Mella. Mella is considered one of the foremost training facility architects in the Dominican Republic and has designed around half of the current academies in the DR today.

Among those in attendance for the opening ceremony were Dominican Republic President Luis Abinader, Dominican Republic Vice Minister of Sports Elvis Duarte, and Dominican Republic Commissioner of Baseball Junior Noboa, along with Orioles Executive Vice President and General Manager Mike Elias, Orioles Vice President of International Scouting and Operations Koby Perez, and 2023 AL Manager of the Year Brandon Hyde. In addition to the several dignitaries in attendance, 2023 Mariano Rivera AL Reliever of the Year Félix Bautista, along with Orioles alumni including National Baseball Hall of Famer Vladimir Guerrero Sr., Hanser Alberto, Daniel Cabrera, Nelson Cruz, Radhames Liz, Melvin Mora, and Ubaldo Jiménez, also attended the ceremony.

ORIOLES IN THE INTERNATIONAL MARKET

Since Executive Vice President and General Manager Mike Elias and Vice President, International Scouting and Operations Koby Perez joined the organization in the 2018-19 offseason, the Orioles have completely revitalized the club's international scouting presence.

During that time, Baltimore has signed two of the largest signing classes in club history in 2019-20 and 2022-23, landed the team's first seven-figure signings in Samuel Basallo and Maikol Hernández in 2020-21, set the franchise record for a bonus given to an international player in Braylin Tavera in 2021-22, and broke that record with the signing of Luis Almeyda in 2022-23. Seven of the current top 30 O's prospects according to Baseball America are international players signed by the organization, including Basallo (MLB No. 10, O's No. 2), Luis De León (O's No. 14), Tavera (O's No. 18), Almeyda (O's No. 19), Emilio Sanchez (No. 23), Stiven Martinez (No. 24), and Frederick Bencosme (O's No. 28).

HOMER'S ODYSSEY

Jonathan Villar hit his 21st home run of the season on September 11, 2019, against Los Angeles-NL off of LHP Caleb Ferguson. The homer, a three-run shot in the seventh inning that gave the O's a 5-2 lead, was the 6,106th of the 2019 Major League season, surpassing the previous single-season record of 6,105 home runs in 2017. The bat that Villar used to hit the historic home run was sent to the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS (1954-2023)

Of the 122 home runs hit onto the Eutaw Street promenade since Oriole Park opened in 1992, Orioles batters have hit 58, including 11 by Chris Davis, the most by an individual. Anthony Santander's nine Eutaw Street home runs are the second-most by an individual, while Jason Giambi's three are the most by an opposing player. Santander's four Eutaw Street home runs in 2021 are a single-season ballpark record. He also slugged the 100th Eutaw Street home run in the history of Oriole Park at Camden Yards on June 29, 2019. A season-high 11 homers landed on Eutaw Street in 2012. Luke Scott's blast on July 19, 2008 was the only walk-off Eutaw Street home run in park history until August 11, 2019, when Rio Ruiz clubbed a two-run home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Orioles their first walk-off win of the season.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

NOTES: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 274-254, in their 70-year regular season history...The Orioles have also hit three postseason grand slams (one on the road and two in Baltimore - one at Memorial Stadium (McNally 1970) and Oriole Park (Bonilla 1996)...They have a 161-140 advantage in Baltimore during the regular season, including an 85-71 edge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards...A BIG MONTH: Manny Machado hit three grand slams in August of 2017, becoming the 10th player in Major League Baseball history, and the first in Orioles history, to hit three grand slams in one calendar month... TWO IN ONE INNING: Steve Clevenger and Nolan Reimold each slugged a grand slam in the bottom of the eighth inning on September 11, 2015, the first set of teammates to each hit a grand slam in the same inning since Carlos Beltran and Cliff Floyd of the New York Mets on July 16, 2006 vs. Chicago-NL...THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Rangers combined to hit three grand slams on August 6, 1986 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium...Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit fourth inning grand slams for the Orioles...TWO IN ONE GAME: An Oriole has hit two grand slams in the same game three times...Chris Hoiles hit a pair of grand slams on August 14, 1998, at Cleveland...Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among four players who have done it in consecutive at bats...Gentile hit slams in the first and second innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961, while Robinson did so in the fifth and sixth innings at Washington on June 26, 1970...GENTILE HIT FIVE IN 1961: Gentile set an American League record and tied the Major League record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit five grand slams in 1961...The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with six grand slams in 1987 and Cleveland's Travis Hafner matched the record in 2006...POSTSEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally are the only two Major League pitchers to hit grand slams in postseason play, and both did it in 1970 with the Orioles...Cuellar connected in ALCS Game 1 off the Twins' Jim Perry, the first grand slam in LCS history... McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium... GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up six grand slams as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler...Pappas gave up nine overall in his career, for the sixth-highest total of career grand slams allowed in Major League history...Jake Arrieta, Scott McGregor, Dave McNally, Alan Mills, Jesse Orosco, and Chris Ray are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing four apiece... Jim Palmer never allowed a grand slam in 558 games spanning 3,948.0 innings.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS

Although the Orioles have not had one in the past 38 seasons, Baltimore pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons, including 23 in the past 54 years (starting in '68), more than any other Major League club. The A's (17), Yankees (16), Cardinals (13), Dodgers (13), Red Sox (13), Astros (12), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Tigers (11), Cubs (10), and Twins (10) are the only other teams with 10-or-more since 1968.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau, becoming the second foursome in the history of Major League Baseball to have achieved the feat, joining a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21.

Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19, 1980, en route to a team-record 25 victories. Three other Orioles hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: Dave McNally (August 25) and Mike Cuellar (August 27) in 1971, and Jim Palmer (August 20) in 1975.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore (1954 through 1967), was left-hander Steve Barber in 1963.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

BALTIMORE ORIOLES GOLD GLOVE AWARDS

The Gold Glove Award was initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league.

Gold Glove totals by each team: Cardinals 98, ORIOLES 72, Yankees 68, Braves 59, Reds 55, Pirates 50, Red Sox 49, Phillies 48, Dodgers 47, Cubs 44, Giants 44, Twins 44, Tigers 43, Mariners 42, Rangers 41, Angels 40, White Sox 40, Guardians/Indians 39, Royals 38, Astros 30, Athletics 27, Blue Jays 26, Rockies 26, Padres 24, Expos/Nationals 23, Mets 20, D-backs 18, Marlins 12, Brewers 11, and Rays 9.

A total of 18 Orioles have won Gold Gloves, with 17 winning multiple times, led by Brooks Robinson, who is tied with pitcher Jim Kaat for second place all-time with 16 Gold Gloves. Greg Maddux is first all-time with 18 Gold Gloves. Manny Machado is the last Oriole to win multiple Gold Gloves, earned his second honor in 2015 (also, 2013).

Orioles winners include: Paul Blair and Mark Belanger (eight each); Adam Jones, Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich, and Mike Mussina (four each); J.J. Hardy, Davey Johnson, and Eddie Murray (three each); Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Manny Machado, Nick Markakis, Rafael Palmeiro, Cal Ripken, Jr., and Matt Wieters (two each), and Ramón Urías. Alomar won a total of 10 Gold Gloves in his career, Aparicio won nine total, Mussina seven total, and Palmeiro three total.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES SILVER SLUGGER AWARDS

The Silver Slugger Award was initiated at the end of the 1980 season by Hillerich & Bradsby, the maker of Louisville Slugger bats, to honor the best offensive player at each position by a vote of managers and coaches around the league.

A total of 15 Orioles have won Silver Sluggers, with three winning multiple times, led by Cal Rikpen, Jr., with eight. Gunnar Henderson (UTL) and Adley Rutschman (C) earned their first career Silver Sluggers in 2023. Henderson became the first Orioles rookie to earn the honor and first O's player to win a Silver Slugger at the utility position, which was introduced in 2022. Of the 24 Silver Sluggers in O's history, 11 have been won by a shortstop.

Orioles winners include: Cal Ripken, Jr. (eight); Eddie Murray and Miguel Tejada (two each); Roberto Alomar, Chris Davis, J.J. Hardy, Gunnar Henderson, Aubrey Huff, Adam Jones, Melvin Mora, Cedric Mullins, Rafael Palmeiro, Adley Rutschman, Mickey Tettleton, and Mark Trumbo (one each).

ALL-STAR NOTES

BIRDS OF A FEATHER: The Orioles have had 29 All-Stars over the last 12 seasons (since 2012)...According to Stats Perform, those 29 All-Stars are tied for the seventh-most in the American League and are tied for 13th in the majors...The Dodgers lead MLB with 45 All-Stars during that time...The Orioles are one of 14 teams with at least 29 All-Stars over that period.

ROOKIE SENSATIONS: RHP Yennier Cano was named to the 2023 American League All-Star team in Seattle, one of four Orioles (RHP Félix Bautista, OF Austin Hays, & C Adley Rutschman)...According to Stats Perform, Cano became the sixth rookie in O's history (since 1954) to be named to the All-Star team, joining LHP John Means (2019), C Andy Etchebarren (1966), RHP Chuck Estrada, 1B Jim Gentile, and INF Ron Hansen (1960).

HE MEANS BUSINESS: LHP John Means was named to the 2019 American League All-Star team as the lone Orioles representative...He became the first homegrown O's starter to make the All-Star team since Hall of Famer Mike Mussina in 1999 in Boston.

DOUBLE-PLAY DUOS: In 2005, INF Brian Roberts and INF Miguel Tejada became the first Orioles teammates to start in the All-Star Game since INF Roberto Alomar and INF Cal Ripken, Jr. each started in 1998...They were the third 2B-SS tandem from the same team to start for the AL since fan balloting returned in 1970, joining New York's INF Willie Randolph and INF Bucky Dent in 1981 along with Alomar and Ripken in 1996.

CAL'S FINALE: INF Cal Ripken, Jr., playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the third inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field...Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles-NL's RHP Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish...It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking INF Brooks Robinson's AL mark; he technically started at shortstop after Texas' INF Alex Rodriguez 'pushed' him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning...With the 2001 home run, he became the oldest player (40) to homer in an All-Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play.

OLDEST AND YOUNGEST: Ripken's appearance in the 2001 All-Star Game in Seattle made him, at 40 years and nearly 11 months, the oldest Oriole to take part in an All-Star Game...Harold Baines was 40 years and 4 months old when he made his sixth and final American League All-Star team with the Orioles in 1999 at Boston's Fenway Park...The youngest Oriole selected to an AL All-Star team was pitcher Jerry Walker, who was 20 years and 5 months old when he was named to the pitching staff for the second of two All-Star games played in 1959...Walker started and went 3.0 innings on the mound in the game, which was played the Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum.

MOST MOST VALUABLES: Oriole players have won six All-Star Game MVP Awards (now known as the Ted Williams Most Valuable Player Award), tied with the San Francisco Giants for the most among all teams since the award's inception in 1962...Cal Ripken, Jr. was a two-time winner (1991 at Toronto, 2001 at Seattle)...Other Orioles to win the award are Brooks Robinson (1964 at St. Louis), Frank Robinson (1971 at Detroit), Roberto Alomar (1998 at Colorado), and Miguel Tejada (2005 at Detroit)…Ripken is one of five players to win two All-Star Game MVP Awards, along with Willie Mays, Steve Garvey, Gary Carter, and Mike Trout.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: INF Cal Ripken, Jr. was elected to start 18 years (13x at SS, 5x at 3B), 17 of those by fan vote... He was unable to play because of injury in 2000...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are 3B Brooks Robinson (4x); 2B Roberto Alomar and OF Adam Jones (3x); 1B Boog Powell, OF Frank Robinson, and INF Manny Machado (3x at 3B, 1x at SS); and C Terry Kennedy, 2B Bobby Grich, OF Ken Singleton, 1B Eddie Murray, OF Brady Anderson, 2B Brian Roberts, SS Miguel Tejada, 1B Chris Davis, SS J.J. Hardy, and DH Nelson Cruz.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: SS Miguel Tejada's home run in the 2005 game at Detroit was the seventh overall by an Oriole in an All-Star Game...INF Cal Ripken, Jr. also hit two home runs in All-Star Games, in 1991 (July 9 at Toronto off RHP Dennis Martínez, two on) and 2001 (July 10 at Seattle off RHP Chan Ho Park, solo)...The others were by 3B Brooks Robinson (July 11, 1967 at Anaheim off RHP Fergie Jenkins, solo); OF Frank Robinson (July 13, 1971 at Detroit off RHP Dock Ellis, one on); OF Ken Singleton (August 9, 1981 at Cleveland off RHP Tom Seaver, solo); and 2B Roberto Alomar (July 7, 1998 at Colorado off RHP Trevor Hoffman, solo).

HOME RUN DERBY NOTES

MANCINI'S EPIC PERFORMANCE: Trey Mancini finished as the runner-up in the 2021 T-Mobile Home Run Derby at Coors Field in Colorado behind New York Mets slugger Pete Alonso, who repeated as champion...Mancini, the No. 6 seed, defeated Oakland's Matt Olson (No. 3 seed) in the opening round of the bracket-style format, 24-23, setting a franchise record for the most home runs in a single round...He then defeated Colorado's Trevor Story (No. 7 seed), 13-12, in the semifinals, before falling to No. 5 seed Alonso, 23-22, in the championship round...Mancini's 59 total home runs are the most hit by an Orioles batter in Home Run Derby history...Mancini's pitcher for the Derby was Notre Dame Fighting Irish baseball team assistant coach Chuck Ristano, who also threw to Mancini when he captured the 2012 Big East Home Run Derby.

ORIOLES DERBY WINNERS: A last-minute replacement to the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada set records at the time for home runs in one round (15) and overall (27) to win the contest...He was the second Oriole to win the derby, joining Cal Ripken, Jr., who hit 12 homers at Toronto's SkyDome in 1991.

ORIOLES DERBY PARTICIPANTS: Mark Trumbo competed in the 2016 T-Mobile Home Run Derby...Trumbo, the No. 1 seed, defeated Corey Seager in the opening round, 16-15, before falling to No. 5 seed and eventual Home Run Derby champion Giancarlo Stanton of the Miami Marlins in the semifinals, 17-14...A No. 5 seed in the 2015 Home Run Derby, Manny Machado was defeated by the Dodgers' Joc Pederson (No. 4 seed) in the first round of the bracket format, 13-12...In 2014, Adam Jones was selected by captain Jose Bautista to represent the AL at Target Field in Minnesota...After blasting four in the first round, Jones was ousted by Yoenis Cespedes in the second round, finishing with seven home runs total...After leading the majors in homers at the break, Chris Davis took part in the 2013 Home Run Derby at Citi Field in New York, finishing fourth...In addition to winning the 2004 Home Run Derby, Miguel Tejada also took part in the 2006 Home Run Derby in Detroit after declining to participate in the 2005 contest, instead bowing to David Ortiz to represent the Dominican Republic in the revised United States vs. the World format...Rafael Palmeiro participated in the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, advancing to the semifinals and finishing third with 14 home runs, as well as the 1998 Home Run Derby at Coors Field in Colorado...B.J. Surhoff appeared in the 1999 Home Run Derby at Fenway Park in Boston...Brady Anderson appeared in back-to-back Home Run Derby contests: in 1996 at Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia and 1997 at Jacobs Field in Cleveland...Mickey Tettleton participated in the 1989 Home Run Derby at Anaheim Stadium...Cal Ripken, Jr. and Eddie Murray represented the Orioles in the inaugural Home Run Derby in 1985 at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minnesota...After his win in 1991, Ripken was unable to repeat as Derby champion in the 1992 Home Run Derby at Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego.

POSTSEASON NOTES

The Orioles finished the season with the second-best record in Major League Baseball at 96-66 and their first American League East division title since 1997. The Birds would draw the American League Central division champion Detroit Tigers in the ALDS, and faced the AL's last three Cy Young Award winners at the time in Max Scherzer, Justin Verlander, and David Price. The Orioles won each of the first two games in Baltimore and took the first game in Detroit to sweep the series 3-0 and advance to the ALCS to take on the Kansas City Royals.

The Orioles dropped each of the first two games in Baltimore to the Royals. The series then shifted to Kansas City where the Royals would pull out 2-1 wins in both Games 3 and 4 to complete the sweep of Baltimore and eliminate the Orioles.

For the third time in five seasons, the Orioles advanced to postseason play, clinching a berth in the American League Wild Card Game. Baltimore traveled to Toronto to take on the Blue Jays at Rogers Centre for the one-game playoff on October 4. The Blue Jays would prevail in 11 innings on an Edwin Encarnación walk-off home run, knocking the Orioles out of the playoffs after just one game.

The Orioles made the postseason for the first time in six seasons after having the best record in the American League and winning the AL East by 2.0 games. Baltimore had the go-ahead run on base in the eighth inning of Game 1 but lost, 3-2, and a late rally fell short in an 11-8 defeat in Game 2. The Rangers completed the sweep in Game 3, 7-1, and went on to win the World Series.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

BASEBALL IN BALTIMORE

1872 – The Lord Baltimores, the city's first professional team, began play in the National Association. In their inaugural game on April 18 in Washington, they beat the Olympics, 16-0. In their home opener on April 22, before 3,500 fans at Newington Park (on Pennsylvania Avenue below Baker Street), they beat the New York Mutuals, 14-9. The team folded in its third season as a rival franchise, the Maryland Base Ball Club, turned from amateur to professional and took its place in the league through 1874. By 1875 the National Association itself had folded.

1882 – A newly formed Lord Baltimores team made its debut in the American Association, a new rival to the National League. A year later, the franchise moved to newly built Oriole Park (on the southwest corner of what is now Greenmount Avenue and 25th Street) and adopted the name "Orioles," the first time that Maryland's state bird was used as a nickname in association with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

1884 – Two more Baltimore teams were formed. One, also named the Orioles, played in the new Union Association; by mid-season they were transferred to Lancaster, Pa., and the league folded after one season. The other, the Monumentals, became a charter member of the Eastern Association, which would become today's International League, but the team broke up after a mere 13 games.

1892 – Baltimore joined the National League. Games were played at Union Park, a 12,000-seat stadium at the northeast corner of Barclay and 25th Street.

1894-1896 – With innovative Ned Hanlon as manager, the scrappy Orioles won three straight National League pennants, led by future Hall of Famers John McGraw, Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley, Willie Keeler, and Hughie Jennings.

1899 – With most of their star players having been sold to Brooklyn, the Orioles finished their eighth season before folding. There would be no professional team in Baltimore as the new century dawned.

1901 – A new Baltimore Orioles team joined the upstart American League, with John McGraw as manager and an overflow crowd of 10,371 at Opening Day. The Orioles played two seasons in Baltimore before folding. The league awarded a new team to New York to fill the vacancy. That team, the Highlanders, eventually became the New York Yankees.

1903 – A minor league team using the name Baltimore Orioles joined the Eastern League. They were in existence for nine seasons, playing at American League Park, at York Road and 29th Street. The team won the league pennant in 1908 under second-year manager Jack Dunn.

1912 – The minor league Orioles joined the International League. They were a part of the league for the next 42 seasons until Major League Baseball returned.

1914 – A second Baltimore team, the Terrapins (named for an edible type of turtle common to the state of Maryland), entered the newly formed Federal League. The league folded after just two seasons. The team played at Terrapin Park, built on the west side of Greenmount Avenue between 29th and 30th street; two years later, Jack Dunn bought the ballpark and renamed it Oriole Park.

1914 – Jack Dunn, owner, general manager, and manager of the International League Orioles, signed 19-year-old George Herman Ruth out of a Baltimore orphanage. Oriole players kid Dunn about his "babe," and a nickname was born. By July, Babe Ruth was sold to the Boston Red Sox.

1919-1925 – The Orioles, led by Dunn, won a record seven straight International League titles. For five of those years (1920-24), future Hall of Famer Lefty Grove lead the pitching staff, going 108-36.

1920S-40S – The city fielded two teams in the Negro Leagues - the Elite Giants and the Black Sox. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella each played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to Major League careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

1944 – After winning the International League title, the Orioles beat Louisville of the American Association to win the Junior World Series. It wasn't easy, however; a fire in the early morning hours of July 4 destroyed Oriole Park, led the team to use Municipal Stadium, a football facility on 33rd Street. One game of the Junior World Series drew 52,833 paid fans, outdrawing each of the World Series games in St. Louis between the Browns and Cardinals and attracted interest from teams in the Major Leagues and professional football.

1953 – The Orioles, owned by Jack Dunn III, played their final season in the International League. After two votes failed, on September 29, American League owners approved the sale of the financially struggling St. Louis Browns franchise to a Baltimore-based consortium led by attorney Clarence W. Miles and brewery owner Jerold C. Hoffberger.

BACK IN THE MAJORS

1954 – Playing in renovated Municipal Stadium (later called Memorial Stadium), Baltimore returned to the Major Leagues and the Orioles returned to the American League after 52 years. After splitting two games in Detroit to begin the season, the Orioles returned to Baltimore by train – arriving, ironically, at Camden Station, just a few yards from the current ballpark – and a lengthy parade through the streets prior to their home opener on April 15. They beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-1, but went on to a 54-100 season.

NOVEMBER 18, 1954 – In a trade that took two weeks to complete, the Orioles and Yankees swapped 18 players as new manager/general manager Paul Richards laid the groundwork for the coming years. The Orioles received 11 players, including catcher Gus Triandos, outfielder Gene Woodling, and Willie Miranda, first in a long line of outstanding defensive shortstops.

1955 – Brooks Robinson was signed; he made his Major League debut on September 17 but did not establish himself as the regular third baseman and future Hall of Famer until 1959.

JULY 8, 1958 – Memorial Stadium hosted its first and only All-Star Game. The Orioles' Billy O'Dell retired the last nine batters to preserve a 4-3 win for the American League.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1958 – Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm hurled the first no-hitter in Orioles history, beating the Yankees 1-0 at Memorial Stadium. Two years later, manager Paul Richards introduced the "big mitt" designed to help catchers cut down on passed balls and wild pitches from Wilhelm's knuckleball.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1963 – Steve Barber became the first 20-game winner in club history, beating the Angels, 3-1, in California.

JUNE 1965 – Jerry Hoffberger, whose family was among the original group of owners of the Orioles when it moved to Baltimore, took control of the ballclub as majority owner. He led the club for 14 years, during which the Orioles went to the postseason six times.

DECEMBER 9, 1965 – The Orioles made arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds for Milt Pappas and two players acquired earlier in the week, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson. New GM Harry Dalton completed the trade, which had begun a month earlier by his predecessor, Lee MacPhail, Jr.

MAY 8, 1966 – Frank Robinson hit the only fair ball ever to leave Memorial Stadium, a shot over the left field bleachers measured at 465 ft. The Orioles later commemorated the event with a flag at the top of the bleachers where the ball left the park, simply saying "HERE."

SEPTEMBER 22, 1966 – Twenty-year-old Jim Palmer pitched a complete game as the Orioles clinch their first American League pennant with a 6-1 win at Kansas City. Palmer won 268 games and three Cy Young Awards in a 19-year career with the Orioles on his way to the Hall of Fame.

1966 – "Would You Believe Four Straight?" The Orioles stunned the baseball world by sweeping the favored Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series. Frank Robinson won the American League triple crown (.316-49-122). Frank, Brooks Robinson, and Boog Powell finished 1-2-3 in the American League MVP voting.

1968 – Longtime minor league manager Earl Weaver was added to the coaching staff at the beginning of the season and, on July 11, was named manager of the Orioles. He went on to post a 1,480-1,060 record in 17 seasons before being elected to the Hall of Fame.

1969-71 – Pitching, three-run homers, and defense stamp Weaver's Orioles, as they captured three straight American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series. Brooks Robinson earned the nickname "Hoover" from future teammate Lee May after showing off his defensive skills in the 1970 series triumph over the Reds.

1973-74 – The Orioles won back-to-back AL East titles, giving them five division titles in six years. However, they were beaten by Oakland in the American League Championship Series both years.

JUNE 15, 1976 – Hank Peters, in his first year as Orioles general manager, began to remake the club with a 10-player trade with the New York Yankees. Future Orioles Hall of Fame members Scott McGregor, Tippy Martinez, and Rick Dempsey came from the Yankees; catcher Elrod Hendricks, who later will be traded and return twice more, was among those sent to New York.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1977 – Memorial Stadium was filled with 51,798 fans on "Thanks, Brooks Day," celebrating the end of the third baseman's 23-year career, all with the Orioles.

JUNE 22, 1979 – Doug DeCinces' two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning capped a monumental comeback against Detroit and gave birth to "Orioles Magic."

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

1979 – The Orioles won the American League pennant for the fifth time and took a 3-1 lead over Pittsburgh in the World Series, but the Pirates' "fam-i-lee" came back to win the last three games and the World Championship.

NOVEMBER 1, 1979 – American League owners approved the August sale of the Orioles to Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams. The purchase ended both local and public ownership of the club.

AUGUST 10, 1981 – Cal Ripken, Jr. made his Major League debut, scoring the winning run as a 12th-inning pinch-runner vs. Kansas City at Memorial Stadium.

1981 – The Orioles' 59-46 record was the best in the American League, but not good enough for the playoffs. Following a mid-year strike, baseball decided to play the season in two halves and the Orioles finished second to New York and Milwaukee in the two halves.

OCTOBER 1-3, 1982 – The Orioles, three games behind Milwaukee with four games to play heading into a final weekend series with the Brewers, took the first three games at Memorial Stadium to force a tie for first. The Brewers spoiled the comeback with a 10-2 win in the season finale. Earl Weaver, who two months earlier had announced retirement at the end of the season, was saluted by 51,462 fans in an emotional celebration and farewell following the game.

1983 – The Orioles lost the first game of the American League Championship Series before coming back to beat the Chicago White Sox in three straight games. They lost the World Series opener to the Philadelphia Phillies before coming back to win four straight for their third World Championship. Cal Ripken, Jr. was named AL MVP (.318-27-102) in a close race over teammate Eddie Murray (.306-33-111).

1988 – The Orioles lost a Major League-record 21 consecutive games to start the season.

MAY 2, 1988 – Returning home to Memorial Stadium with a 1-23 record, the Orioles played before 50,402 fans on a Monday night. In a dramatic pre-game announcement, Governor William Donald Schaefer announced that Orioles owner Edward Bennett Williams and the Maryland Stadium Authority agreed on a 15-year lease for a new ballpark to be constructed at Camden Yards for the 1992 season.

DECEMBER 1988 – Investor Eli S. Jacobs bought the Orioles from the estate of Edward Bennett Williams, who passed away in August.

1989 – "Why Not?" was the rallying cry of the young Orioles, who improbably led the AL East into September. They eventually lost at Toronto on the next-to-last day of the season, giving the Blue Jays the division crown.

OCTOBER 6, 1991 – After 38 years, the Memorial Stadium era ended as the Orioles played their last game on 33rd Street. Cal Ripken, Jr. – who added his second MVP Award to the All-Star Game MVP trophy he won mid-season – hit into a game-ending double play, but the 7-1 loss to Detroit did not diminish an emotional "Field of Dreams" celebration afterward as more than 100 former Orioles returned in uniform to take their old positions one last time before 50,700 fans.

APRIL 6, 1992 – Oriole Park at Camden Yards ushered in a new era of "retro ballparks" and the Orioles beat the Indians, 2-0, on Rick Sutcliffe's complete game. The ballpark, on the western edge of downtown, helped revitalize the neighborhood and earned wide acclaim for its architectural design and fan-friendly features.

JULY 13, 1993 – Oriole Park hosted the city's second All-Star Game, following a week-long "All-Star Fan Fest," the first of its kind.

AUGUST 2, 1993 – Baltimore attorney Peter Angelos led a group of investors – most of whom were Baltimoreans – in buying the Orioles at an auction from Eli S. Jacobs. American League owners approved the sale on October 4.

SEPTEMBER 6, 1995 – The Iron Man topped the Iron Horse: Cal Ripken, Jr. surpassed a record once thought unbeatable, playing in his 2,131st consecutive game to pass Lou Gehrig's all-time record. Ripken's homer in the game helped beat the Angels, 4-2.

1995 – The Orioles drew 3,098,475 fans in the strike-shortened season to lead the American League in attendance for the first time in their history. They went on to lead the league in attendance for four straight years.

SEPTEMBER 6, 1996 – Future Hall of Famer Eddie Murray, who returned to the club in a mid-season trade with Cleveland, hit his 500th career home run into the right field seats at Camden Yards.

1996 – A Major League-record 10 different Orioles hit at least 10 home runs during the season as the Orioles broke the New York Yankees 35-year-old mark for home runs by a team. The Orioles advanced to the playoffs as the Wild Card team, finishing second in the AL East. They beat Cleveland in the American League Division Series before the Yankees ended the Orioles postseason hopes in the ALCS.

1997 – The Orioles went wire-to-wire to win the AL East. They beat Seattle in the Division Series before falling in six games to Cleveland in the ALCS.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1998 – Cal Ripken, Jr. ended his consecutive game streak at 2,632, sitting out the Orioles' final home game of the season at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees. Ryan Minor started in his place at third base.

APRIL 15, 2000 – Cal Ripken, Jr. singled at Minnesota's Metrodome off Hector Carrasco for his 3,000th career hit, the first Oriole and 24th player to reach that milestone.

OCTOBER 6, 2001 – Having announced in May his plans to retire at season's end, Cal Ripken, Jr. played his last game as an Oriole before 48,807 fans at Camden Yards. His 21-year career resulted in a first-ballot election to the Hall of Fame.

JULY 31, 2006 – The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, a regional television channel owned primarily by the Orioles, began 24-hour programming. The network is the rightsholder for both Orioles and Washington Nationals games.

NOVEMBER 12, 2008 – The Orioles unveiled their new road uniform with a script "Baltimore" across the chest. The Orioles' road uniform had featured a script "Orioles" across the chest since 1973.

OCTOBER 5, 2012 – The Orioles and Rangers met in the first American League Wild Card "play-in" game in Arlington. The Orioles won 5-1 to advance to the ALDS, where they fell in five games to the Yankees.

2013 – Chris Davis homered for the 51st time on September 17 at Boston, breaking Brady Anderson's club record set in 1996. Davis added two more before season's end, finishing with 53. The Orioles finished with a .991 fielding percentage, the best in Major League history.

SEPTEMBER 16, 2014 – With an 8-2 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays, the Orioles secured their ninth AL East Division title in team history, marking the third time the club had clinched in Baltimore, the first time since 1979, and the first division clinch with a win in Baltimore since 1969.

OCTOBER 5, 2014 – The Orioles swept the Detroit Tigers with a 2-1 victory in Game 3 of the American League Division Series to advance to the ALCS for the first time since 1997, where they fell to the Kansas City Royals in four games.

APRIL 29, 2015 – Citing the need for local resources to be better utilized during a period of unrest in Baltimore, the Orioles played an unprecedented game without fans against the Chicago White Sox after closing the contest to the public. The Orioles went on to win, 8-2.

JUNE 16, 2015 – Seven different Orioles combined to slug a club-record eight home runs against the Philadelphia Phillies, surpassing the previous club mark of seven. Chris Davis' fourth inning blast was his seventh career home run to land on Eutaw Street, the most such home runs in Oriole Park history by an individual player. He hit his eighth career Eutaw Street home run on August 14, 2015 vs. Oakland, and has 11 career Eutaw Street home runs.

JUNE 28, 2015 – In the second game of a doubleheader against Cleveland, the Orioles recorded their 5,000th regular season victory in club history.

AUGUST 1, 2015 – Outfielder Gerardo Parra became the 1,000th player to appear in a game for the Orioles since the team moved to Baltimore in 1954.

OCTOBER 4, 2016 – The Orioles advanced to postseason play for the third time in five seasons, and met the Toronto Blue Jays in the American League Wild Card Game. The Blue Jays defeated the Orioles, 5-2, in 11 innings at Rogers Centre.

AUGUST 5, 2017 – The Orioles reached 10,000 regular season home runs in Orioles history (since 1954) against Detroit, when Tim Beckham connected for a solo home run in the eighth inning off of Edward Mujica.

2018 – The Orioles finished the season with a franchise-worst 115 losses, posting a record of 47-115 (.290) and 61 games behind first-place Boston.

2019 – The Orioles finished the season with over 100 losses for the second consecutive year, posting a record of 54-108 (.333) and 49 games behind first-place New York-AL. On June 3, the Orioles selected catcher Adley Rutschman from Oregon State University with the No. 1 overall selection of the 2019 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. On July 25 at Los Angeles-AL, Stevie Wilkerson became the first position player to record a save since the save became an official statistic in 1969.

2020 – Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Orioles played a 60-game regular season schedule, the fewest in the club's history.

2021 – Following the pandemic-shortened season, fans returned to Oriole Park at Camden Yards for the first time in 557 days for the club's home opener on April 8. After missing the entire 2020 season battling stage III colon cancer, Trey Mancini took the field to a standing ovation from the Birdland faithful. Cedric Mullins went on to become the first player in Orioles history (since 1954) to record 30 home runs and 30 stolen bases in a single season.

2022 – Baltimore became the first team since 1900 to win at least 77 games in a season after losing 110+ games the previous year and only the third team in MLB history to finish with a .500-or-better record after losing 110+ games the prior campaign. Adley Rutschman broke the record for doubles by an O's rookie and by an Orioles catcher in one season, while Anthony Santander tied an MLB record by homering from both sides of the plate in the same game four times in a single year. On July 17, Jackson Holliday became the third No. 1 overall selection by Baltimore in club history when he was drafted out of Stillwater (OK) HS.

2023 – The Orioles clinched their first AL East Division title since 2014 and advanced to the Postseason for the first time since 2016. Brandon Hyde won BBWAA AL Manager of the Year after leading the O's to the best record in the AL and became only the second manager in team history with 100 wins in a season. Gunnar Henderson set franchise rookie records with 66 extra-base hits, 100 runs, and a .489 slugging percentage, earning unanimous BBWAA AL Rookie of the Year in the process. Executive Vice President and General Manager Mike Elias was named MLB Executive of the Year. The pitching staff set a club record with 1,431 strikeouts.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

ORIOLES IN THE NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

There are currently six players and/or managers enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y. as Orioles (induction year in parenthesis):

Cal Ripken, Jr., SS (2007)
Eddie Murray, 1B (2003)
Earl Weaver, Manager (1996)
Jim Palmer, RHP (1990)
Brooks Robinson, 3B (1983)
Frank Robinson, RF (1982)

In 2007, Cal Ripken, Jr. received 98.53 percent of the vote total (537 of the 545 ballots cast) by eligible members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. At the time, it was the third-highest percent of the vote total in the history of the Hall of Fame, behind only Tom Seaver (98.84% in 1992) and Nolan Ryan (98.79% in 1999).

All five players to be inducted into the Hall of Fame as Orioles were elected in their first year of eligibility (Earl Weaver was selected as a manager by the Veterans Committee).

Additionally, there are 17 other modern-day players, managers, and front office executives with ties to the Orioles organization that have been inducted into the Hall of Fame (induction year in parenthesis):

Mike Mussina, RHP (2019)
Harold Baines, OF (2019)
Lee Smith, RHP (2019)
Vladimir Guerrero, RF (2018)
Jim Thome, 1B (2018)
Tim Raines, Sr., LF (2017)
John Schuerholz, Executive (2017)
Roberto Alomar, 2B (2011)
Pat Gillick, Executive (2011)
Whitey Herzog, Manager (2010)
Dick Williams, Manager (2008)
Lee MacPhail, Executive (1998)
Reggie Jackson, RF (1993)
Hoyt Wilhelm, RHP (1985)
Luis Aparicio, SS (1984)
George Kell, 3B (1983)
Robin Roberts, RHP (1976)

In addition to the nine former Orioles players that have been inducted as members of other organizations, three executives and two managers that have spent time with the Orioles have also been enshrined in Cooperstown:

Pat Gillick, who played for the Orioles as a minor leaguer and later served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1995-98, was elected by the Veterans Committee and was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2011.

Dick Williams, who had three different tenures as a player with the Orioles in the late 1950s and early 1960s, was named a 2008 inductee to the Hall of Fame as a manager after managing 21 years in the Major Leagues with six different teams, winning four league titles and two world championships.

Lee MacPhail, who served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1959-65, was inducted into the Hall of Fame as an executive by the Veterans Committee in 1998. His son, Andy, would serve as the President of Baseball Operations with the Orioles from 2007-11.

Whitey Herzog was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame as a manager, but played for the Orioles from 1961-62.

John Schuerholz, a member of the Orioles front office from 1966-68, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame by the Today's Game Era Committee as part of the 2017 class. Schuerholz currently serves as vice chairman, emeritus of the Atlanta Braves and spent 26 years as a Major League Baseball general manager from 1982-2007 with the Kansas City Royals and Braves.

NATIVE MARYLANDERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Currently, 11 members of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum have been born in Maryland: Harold Baines (Easton), John Schuerholz (Baltimore), Bowie Kuhn (Takoma Park), Cal Ripken, Jr. (Havre de Grace), Vic Willis (Elkton), Al Kaline (Baltimore), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Frank "Home Run" Baker (Trappe), Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing), and George Herman "Babe" Ruth (Baltimore).

Additionally, of the 11 members of the Hall of Fame to be born in Maryland, five once played for the Orioles. Cal Ripken, Jr. (1981-2001) and Harold Baines (1993-95, 1997-99, 2000) played for Baltimore, while Frank "Home Run" Baker (1907), Lefty Grove (1920-24), and Babe Ruth (1914) all played for the International League Orioles.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, four other Orioles broadcasters have won the Ford C. Frick Award: Ernie Harwell ('54-'59), Herb Carneal ('57-'61), Bob Murphy ('60-'61), and Jon Miller ('83-'96).

1978 Mel Allen & Red Barber
1979 Bob Elson
1980 Russ Hodges
1981 Ernie Harwell
1982 Vin Scully
1983 Jack Brickhouse
1984 Curt Gowdy
1985 Buck Canel
1986 Bob Prince
1987 Jack Buck

BALTIMORE TIES TO THE HALL OF FAME

Along with the modern-day Orioles in the Baseball Hall of Fame, several other players and managers with Orioles connections throughout Baltimore's rich baseball heritage have been enshrined in Cooperstown, N.Y. (induction year in parenthesis):

Edward "Ned" Hanlon, Manager (1996)
Joe Kelley, OF/INF (1971)
Rube Marquard, LHP (1971)
William "Candy" Cummings, RHP (1959)
Frank "Home Run" Baker, 3B (1955)
Charles "Chief" Bender, RHP (1953)
Robert M. "Lefty" Grove, LHP (1947)
Joe "Iron Man" McGinnity, RHP (1946)
Roger Bresnahan, C (1945)
Dan Brouthers, 1B (1945)
Hughie Jennings, SS (1945)
Wilbert Robinson, Manager (1945)
Rogers Hornsby, 2B (1942)
Wee Willie Keeler, OF (1939)
John McGraw, Manager (1937)
George Herman "Babe" Ruth, OF (1936)

HALL OF FAME GAME

The Orioles made their sixth scheduled appearance in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown's Double Day Field on May 14, 2007. It turned out to be the last Hall of Fame Game played; the 2008 game between the Padres and Cubs was rained out, and the game was discontinued after that. The Orioles went 3-2 in Hall of Fame Games, with one postponed by rain. The results:

1961	Los Angeles Dodgers 6, Orioles 2	1990	Orioles vs. Montreal Expos, rained out
1967	Orioles 3, Cincinnati Reds 0	1998	Orioles 7, Toronto Blue Jays 1
1983	St. Louis Cardinals 4, Orioles 1	2007	Orioles 13, Toronto Blue Jays 7

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates, and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates, and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75 percent of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years, but ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

Last inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame were former Orioles infielder J.J. Hardy and outfielder Mike Devereaux in 2021. Hardy played the last seven seasons of his 13-year career with the Orioles from 2011-17, winning three consecutive Gold Glove Awards from 2012-14 and was the starting shortstop for the American League All-Star team in 2013. He ranks third among Orioles shortstops in games played behind Cal Ripken, Jr. and Mark Belanger, and led the league in fielding percentage three times. He batted .252 with 107 home runs and 385 RBI with the Orioles, helping the team to three post-season berths.

Devereaux spent seven of his 12 big league seasons with the Orioles, 1989-94 and 1996. The center fielder was voted Most Valuable Oriole in 1992 after leading the team in 10 offensive categories including batting average, home runs, and RBI. He batted .251 with 94 home runs and 403 RBI in his Orioles career and is one of three Orioles to finish a season with 10-or-more doubles, triples, and home runs (1991 and 1992), and the only one to do so twice. He also played for the Orioles' 1996 Wild Card-winning team.

The Orioles Hall of Fame currently has 58 former players, coaches, and managers.

"WILD BILL" HAGY AWARD

On August 20, 2007, the Orioles lost one of their most passionate fans with the passing of William G. "Wild Bill" Hagy. Leading cheers from "The Roar from 34" at Memorial Stadium, "Wild Bill" became a Baltimore institution, contorting his body to spell out "O-R-I-O-L-E-S" from the upper deck – and sometimes coming down to lead the crowd in cheers from atop the dugout.

Upon his passing, the Orioles and the Oriole Advocates announced the creation of an award to honor the team's top fans, to be named The Wild Bill Hagy Award. The award will expand the Orioles Hall of Fame categories to include fans who have demonstrated an exceptional commitment in support of the team in the tradition of Wild Bill, who rooted for the club year in and year out. Appropriately, Hagy was named the first recipient of the award.

On July 28, 2020, Mossila "Mo" Gaba was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame as the second-ever recipient of The Wild Billy Hagy Award. The Orioles honored Mo as one of the most passionate and devoted fans in franchise history.

Mo, who passed away the night of his election to the Hall of Fame, began calling in to 105.7 The Fan's sports programming in 2015 at the age of nine. Unbeknownst to his mother, Sonsy, he would call in on afternoons when he got home from school to share his unparalleled knowledge of Baltimore sports with local fans and radio listeners. Despite losing his eyesight due to a malignant tumor when he was just nine months old and enduring four different battles with cancer throughout his life, his infectious laughter and enthusiasm quickly captured the hearts of local sports fans, making him a Baltimore celebrity and a household name.

Mo regularly made appearances at Orioles games and events, including in 2017, when he threw out the ceremonial first pitch as part of Kids' Opening Day, and in 2019, when his "Play Ball!" call on Kids' Opening Day officially marked the start of a new season. After inspiring countless fans and Baltimoreans with his positivity, PressBox recognized Mo as the 2019 Sportsperson of the Year.

Mo's positive energy was constant throughout every battle and brought the entire city of Baltimore together in the face of ongoing crisis. His unwavering positivity and kindness were qualities every Baltimorean aspires to emulate. Mo Gaba impacted more people in his 14 years than most people do in an entire lifetime, and the Orioles are honored to forever celebrate him as a member of the Orioles Hall of Fame.

HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ball club, the community, or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager, and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during the Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

The most recent winner of the Herb Armstrong Award was Joe Angel in 2021. Angel spent 19 seasons over three stints as an Orioles radio broadcaster before retiring following the 2018 season. Overall, he spent 42 years as a baseball broadcaster, also working for the San Francisco Giants, Oakland Athletics, Minnesota Twins, New York Yankees, and Florida Marlins, as well as ESPN. Originally part of the Orioles broadcast team from 1988-90, Angel returned for one season in 1992 before becoming the first broadcast voice of the Marlins for eight years. He rejoined the Orioles radio team in 2004 for his final 15 seasons, where his signature calls of "Hasta la vista pelota!," "Wave that baby bye-bye!," and "Put it in the WIN column!," delighted Orioles fans.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE

Infielder Gunnar Henderson was voted the winner of the 2023 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award by members of the local media. He was voted the BBWAA American League Rookie of the Year unanimously, becoming the first unanimous winner in Orioles history, and seventh Rookie of the Year in team history.

Henderson slashed .255/.325/.489 (143-for-560) with 29 doubles, nine triples, 28 home runs, 100 runs, 82 RBI, 56 walks (1 IBB), and 10 stolen bases in 150 games (143 starts). He led Major League Baseball rookies in Baseball Reference Wins Above Replacement (bWAR) with 6.3, as well as in home runs and extra-base hits (66), while leading AL rookies in FanGraphs' Wins Above Replacement (fWAR) with 4.6, as well as in triples, runs, RBI, and total bases (274). According to Stats Peform, he ranked second among qualified AL rookies in slugging and OPS (.814) and third in on-base percentage. He became the fourth AL rookie since 2002 to score 100 runs in a season, joining Aaron Judge (128, 2017), Mike Trout (129, 2012), and Austin Jackson (103, 2010). He is also the first rookie in team history and 20th in MLB history to record at least 20 doubles, five triples, 20 homers, and 10 stolen bases in a single season.

Henderson set O's rookie records in extra-base hits, runs, bWAR, and slugging percentage. His historic season led to him becoming the fourth rookie to be named the winner of the award since its inception in 1954 and the second straight after Adley Rutschman earned the honor in 2022.

The 22-year-old infielder appeared in 84 games at third base (68 starts) and 83 at shortstop (64 starts), leading the Orioles with 13 Defensive Runs Saved, per Sports Info Solutions. Ten of those were at shortstop, sixth in MLB despite playing over 360 fewer innings at the position than anyone ahead of him. He led MLB with six Runner Runs, a metric designed to evaluate the performance of runners taking extra bases, per Statcast.

Henderson was named AL Rookie of the Year by the Sporting News and Players Choice AL Outstanding Rookie, both of which were voted on by his peers. He was named an AL Silver Slugger Award winner at the utility position, becoming the 15th rookie to claim a Silver Slugger and first in Orioles history. He was also named to Baseball America's Major League All-Rookie Team. He was selected AL Rookie of the Month for June and AL Player of the Week for the period of June 5-11, and was twice chosen as the winner of the Electric Play of the Week presented by Chevrolet.

Henderson appeared on his first career Opening Day roster in 2023, entering the campaign as the No. 1 overall prospect according to Baseball America, Baseball Prospectus, ESPN, FanGraphs, and MLB Pipeline.

The MVO Award was initiated when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. The award is named in honor of the late Lou Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Baltimore Sun for 27 years. The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the Orioles on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994. Thirteen players - Eddie Murray (seven), Cal Ripken, Jr. (four), Brooks Robinson (four), Adam Jones (three), Rafael Palmiero (three), Frank Robinson (three), Ken Singleton (three), and Chris Davis, Stu Miller, Jim Palmer, Boog Powell, Brian Roberts, and Miguel Tejada (two) - have won the award more than once.

EARL WEAVER

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl Weaver currently ranks 26th in victories and his .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks eighth on the all-time list of those who managed 10-or-more seasons in the Majors.

Weaver was a minor league second baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as a first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won six AL East titles, four AL pennants, and one World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Weaver's Orioles won 100 games-or-more five times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors three times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended one game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1½ years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as a manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Weaver passed away on January 19, 2013, at age 82. His widow, Marianna, lives in Pembroke Pines, Fla.

BROOKS ROBINSON

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive Opening Day games. He won the American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and holds the record for most Gold Gloves by a position player with 16. His election to Baseball's Hall of Fame (in his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Robinson played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken, Jr. among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases, and extra-base hits. In addition to his American League MVP Award in 1964 and his World Series MVP Award in 1970, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in 1960, 1962, 1964, and co-winner in 1971 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an American League player in 1977. In 2016, Robinson was honored at the annual Rawlings Gold Glove Award ceremony with a Lifetime Achievement Award. In 2020, he was awarded the Bob Feller Act of Valor Award for his integrity and honorable service as an Ordnance Parts Specialist in the Army National Guard in response to the Vietnam War.

Robinson holds six Major League fielding records and seven American League records for third basemen, including 2,697 putouts. He is 16th on the all-time list of games played (fourth in the AL) and fourth in games played with one team.

He served as a Special Advisor and Community Liaison for the Orioles from 2018 until his passing on September 26, 2023, at age 86.

CAL RIPKEN, JR.

Baseball's all-time Iron Man, Cal Ripken, Jr. spent his entire 21-year career with the Orioles and was inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2007 in his first year of eligibility. He is one of only 11 players in history with both 400 HR and 3,000 hits, along with Hank Aaron, Adrián Beltré, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Rafael Palmeiro, Albert Pujols, Alex Rodriguez, Dave Winfield, and Carl Yastrzemski. In 2001, his final season, he was elected to his 19th All-Star Game, breaking the AL record for most times as an All-Star – a record previously held by Brooks Robinson. He earned two All-Star Game MVP Awards (1991 and 2001), two American League MVP Awards (1983 and 1991), American League Rookie of the Year honors (1982), two Gold Gloves, and eight Silver Slugger awards, all at shortstop.

Ripken will be most remembered for topping the said-to-be-unbreakable record for consecutive games played set by Lou Gehrig, passing Gehrig's mark of 2,130 games on September 6, 1995. Ripken went on to play in 2,632 consecutive games before sitting on September 20, 1998.

Following the 1999 season, he was named as one of two shortstops (with Ernie Banks) on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, selected by fans and an expert panel. Extremely active in community endeavors, he won the Roberto Clemente Award (1992) and the initial Bart Giamatti Caring Award (1990), among many other honors.

Since his playing career ended in 2001, Ripken has focused his attention on growing the game at the grassroots level and helping underserved communities. Cal's business, Ripken Baseball operates four youth baseball and softball tournament destinations known as The Ripken Experience. They are located in his hometown of Aberdeen, Md. as well as Myrtle Beach, SC, Pigeon Forge, TN and, most recently, Disney World in Orlando, FL. Cal and his family also formed the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation twenty years ago. Since 2001 the CRSF has grown to serve over 1.2 million young people across the country annually through impactful programs such as Badges for Baseball & Healthy Children, Healthy Choices and through the construction of Youth Development Parks and Elementary School STEM Centers. To date over 100 Youth Development Parks, at a cost of roughly $1 million each, have been built in areas of need and gifted to youth-serving organization. In addition, more than 80 STEM Centers, along with corresponding curriculum, have been added to schools in 15 states. In 2015, Ripken was named Major League Baseball Special Advisor on Youth Programs and Outreach by Commissioner Robert D. Manfred and since 2007 Cal has served as a Special Envoy to the US State Department and in that role has made goodwill trips to China, Japan, Nicaragua and the Czech republic.

Frank Robinson's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all time in numerous statistical categories. He hit 586 home runs, 10th on the all-time list. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player (1966-71), coach (1979-80 and 85-87), manager (1988-91), and assistant general manager (1991-95).

The trade that brought Robinson from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the American League and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series four times in his six seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the 1971 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Robinson was the National League Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues (1961 NL, 1966 AL). He played in 14 All-Star Games and was MVP of the 1971 Midsummer Classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in Major League history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. In addition to the Indians (1975-77), he managed the San Francisco Giants (1981-84), the Orioles (1988-91), and the Montreal Expos-Washington Nationals (2002-06).

Robinson was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 1982. On February 2, 2015, Robinson was named by Baseball Commissioner Robert D. Manfred, Jr. as Senior Advisor and the new Honorary President of the American League.

Robinson passed away on February 7, 2019, at the age of 83. His widow, Barbara, lives in Los Angeles.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS

22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim Palmer won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a four-year span (1973, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is fourth on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched in the live-ball era (1920-present).

Palmer won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only six pitchers who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a nine-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of three decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 postseason appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the American League's starting pitcher four times.

Palmer was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 29th season as an analyst on Orioles televised games and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN. On January 12, 2012, Palmer was awarded the Player Lifetime Achievement Award by the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation.

EDDIE MURRAY

Eddie played 12½ of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Murray, Hank Aaron, Miguel Cabrera, Willie Mays, Rafael Palmeiro, Albert Pujols, and Alex Rodriguez are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits.

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 Major League seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in modern-day history and ranks 10th all-time in RBI. Murray was named to eight All-Star teams, seven as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better seven times, including five times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' "triple crown" five times, leading the club in average, homers, and RBI. He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, the second most in history behind Pete Rose. He also appeared in 2,413 games as a first baseman, the most by a first baseman in Major League history.

Murray broke in as the American League Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole seven times (twice sharing the award with Ripken).

He currently serves as a Special Advisor and Community Liaison for the Orioles.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Murray's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the New York Mets, Cleveland Indians, and Los Angeles Angels, and was an Orioles coach for four seasons, 1998-2001. He also served as the hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians and Los Angeles Dodgers. A three-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the Major League record for games played and career assists by a first baseman. Murray has two daughters, Jordan and Jessica, and lives in his hometown of Los Angeles.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

THE BALLPARK THAT FOREVER CHANGED BASEBALL™

When Oriole Park at Camden Yards (OPACY) opened on April 6, 1992, a new era of Major League Baseball began. The park was brand new, but still old-fashioned. State-of-the-art, yet quaint. At less than a day old, it was already a classic.

OPACY inspired a generation of ballpark construction. No longer would communities across America build multipurpose stadiums devoid of character, surrounded by vast parking lots. Ballparks would now be created to nestle neatly into existing and historic neighborhoods and play key roles in the revitalization of urban America.

Oriole Park is unique, traditional, and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the Upper Deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural turfgrass are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900s.

In the 32 years that have followed, OPACY has been one of the leading catalysts for year-round tourism in Baltimore and Maryland. The downtown attraction has welcomed more than 76 million fans, including individuals from all 50 states and more than 100 countries. The city of Baltimore and the entire state of Maryland have derived over $10 billion in economic impact from fans who have attended Orioles games over the last 32 seasons, as well as from the millions more who have participated in major concerts, festivals, meetings, tours, and community events that have been held at the ballpark.

OPACY captured the nation's attention from day one and in the seasons that followed has served as the standard by which all new ballparks are measured. Citizens of Baltimore and across the Mid-Atlantic region as well as Orioles fans everywhere, should take great pride in the fact that their team makes its home in The Ballpark That Forever Changed Baseball™. In December of 2023, the Orioles agreed to a partnership with the State of Maryland, Governor Wes Moore, and the Maryland Stadium Authority that will keep the Orioles at Camden Yards for thirty more years. The deal represents the commitment by the Orioles organization to the City of Baltimore, the fans, and the desire to reinvigorate the area in and around the ballpark and the downtown corridor.

Designed by the architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata + Kassabaum (HOK), with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA), the construction of the Oriole Park at Camden Yards was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began on June 28, 1989, in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the city's Inner Harbor and only two blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary slugger, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street and Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park.

BALLPARK ENHANCEMENTS

Prior to the 2023 season, in partnership with SuperBook Sports, the Orioles constructed the first-ever retail sports lounge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, located along Eutaw Street. Retail partner, Fanatics, also officially overtook all in-venue retail locations, including a revamp of the Orioles Team Store located on Eutaw Street.

Prior to the 2022 season, the Orioles adjusted the measurements of the left field wall, pushing it back as much as 30 feet in varying increments at different points in the wall, and raising the height by approximately 5 feet.

In a continuing effort to create the most family-friendly atmosphere in sports, the Orioles extended protective netting at OPACY down each foul line to near each foul pole in August of 2019. Protective netting was also extended to near the foul poles at Ed Smith Stadium prior to the start of 2020 Spring Training.

The natural surface of the warning track, installed in 2013 to replace the original rubberized warning track from 1992, is composed of crushed stone, matching the color of the brick that appears throughout the ballpark and on the Warehouse.

FOOD & BEVERAGE

Prior to the 2023 season, the Orioles announced a new partnership with Levy, the market leader in creating unforgettable hospitality experiences at sports and entertainment venues, to create "Brick & Whistle Food Co.," providing fans with a one-of-a-kind, exclusive hospitality experience that is synonymous with the historic Baltimore Orioles brand. The partnership includes incorporating iconic tastes of Baltimore and the Chesapeake Bay, upgraded technology to allow faster and frictionless check-out options, and new culinary training opportunities for up-and-coming hospitality talent.

LEED CERTIFICATION

In 2018, after a multi-year effort of research and enhancements, the U.S. Green Building Council awarded OPACY with Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold Certification for an existing building. The accompanying B&O Warehouse was also awarded with LEED Silver.

B&O WAREHOUSE BUILDING

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate and houses office space for the Orioles as well as banquet facilities and the ballpark's central kitchen. Built between 1898 and 1905, the Warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1,016 feet, and is only 51 feet wide.

WAREHOUSE LIGHTS

Throughout the year, the Orioles show their support for numerous causes by lighting the lights on the front of the Warehouse in specific colors. This past year, the lights were lit blue and yellow in support of the people of Ukraine, red to honor fallen fire service heroes, and rainbow colors to show support for LGBTQ+ community during Pride month, among others.

EUTAW STREET

The ballpark and Warehouse are separated by a 60-foot wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street, which gives access to the Orioles Official Team Store, SuperBook Bar & Restaurant, and various plaques and displays, including markings for every home run ball to hit Eutaw Street.

FOUL POLES

Both the left and right field foul poles are the original poles used while the Orioles played at Memorial Stadium.

SEAT FEATURES

Every aisle seat in the park includes a reproduction of the 125-year-old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890s, a National League team that won consecutive pennants from 1894-96.

ATTENDANCE INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE MILESTONES: The Orioles celebrated two attendance milestones in 2008. The first came on August 19, 2008, as the O's welcomed Kevin Gracie, a law school student from Ellicott City, Md., as their designated 50 millionth fan to attend a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Opened in 1992, Oriole Park was the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50-million fan milestone in the history of baseball, a record that stood until the San Francisco Giants broke the mark at AT&T Park during the 2015 season. In its first 17 seasons, Oriole Park at Camden Yards hosted the third-most fans in baseball, trailing only Dodger Stadium and Yankee Stadium.

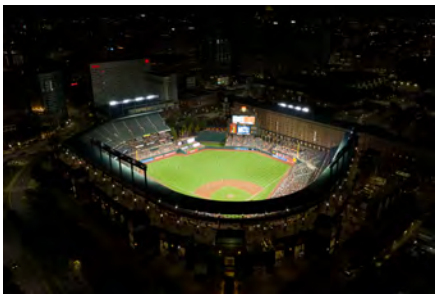
Less than a week later, on August 23, 2008, the 100 millionth fan in franchise history (since 1954) entered the gates at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Velma Greene, a middle school teacher from Harpers Ferry, W. Va., was designated as the milestone fan. In 70 seasons and 5,165 regular season dates between Memorial Stadium and Camden Yards, 126,145,582 fans have watched the Orioles play in Baltimore.

The Orioles have drawn a total of 76,299,994 fans in 2,449 regular season dates in 32 seasons at Oriole Park, surpassing the total attendance from 1954 through 1991 at Memorial Stadium. In 38 seasons at the old ballpark on 33rd Street, the club drew 49,845,588 in 2,716 dates, an average of 18,353 fans per game. The Birds have averaged 31,156 fans per game in 2,449 dates at Oriole Park.

2023: Postseason baseball returned to Camden Yards in 2023, hosting Games 1 and 2 of the ALDS on Saturday, October 7, and Sunday, October 8. Both games were sellouts, totaling 92,925 fans across the weekend. During the regular season, the club saw six sellouts, with the largest crowd coming for the home opener on Friday, April 7 (45,017) and second-highest on Saturday, August 5 (44,326).

2021: To begin the year, Oriole Park opened at 25 percent capacity to comply with the City of Baltimore's health and safety mandates related to the COVID-19 pandemic. OPACY returned to full capacity on June 1, staying that way for the remainder of the season.

2020: In order to prioritize the health and safety of the team, staff, and fans during the global COVID-19 pandemic, fans were not permitted at Oriole Park during the 2020 season.



LARGEST 3-DATE CROWD: The August 10-12, 2007, series against the Boston Red Sox shattered the attendance record for a three-date series at Oriole Park at Camden Yards by more than 2,000 fans. A total of 146,786 fans attended the three games, topping the previous mark of 144,784 set August 21-23, 1998, vs. Cleveland.

"QUICKEST TO" MILESTONES
3 million—66 home dates ('93, '97 & '98)
2 million—43 home dates ('94)
1 million—22 home dates ('94)

AMONG THE MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the AL in total or average attendance until 1995, then did so for four consecutive years. The team has drawn three million or more fans in nine of the 32 non-strike shortened or pandemic-shortened seasons at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd for a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards was 4,965 on September 8, 2021, against the Kansas City Royals. The smallest crowd ever for an Orioles home game was on August 17, 1972, when only 655 fans attended an afternoon make-up game against the Chicago White Sox at Memorial Stadium.

ZERO FANS: Fans were not permitted at any regular season Major League Baseball game during the 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to the 2020 season, on April 29, 2015, the Orioles played a game against the Chicago White Sox at Oriole Park, which was closed to the public. The game was not considered in tallying the total season attendance and the date was not included in the average per game attendance.

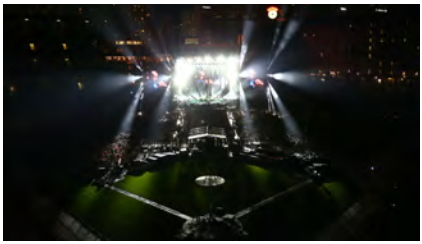
BIRDLAND SUMMER MUSIC SERIES: The Birdland Summer Music Series offers entertainment while continuing the club's goal of bringing more visitors to downtown Baltimore and solidifying Camden Yards as an elite entertainment destination for the state of Maryland. In 2023, the Birdland Summer Music Series featured by multi-platinum selling artist Andy Grammer, DJ DIESEL, aka Shaquille O'Neal, and country music superstar Brett Young .

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN & THE E STREET BAND: The Orioles were scheduled to welcome Bruce Springsteen & The E Street Band in September of 2023 for the third-ever major concert at Oriole Park at Camden Yards as part of the band's international tour. Due to an on-going illness, Springsteen had to postpone the entirety of his tour in the fall of 2023. The concert is rescheduled for September 13, 2024.

PAUL McCARTNEY: The Orioles hosted singer-songwriter Paul McCartney for the second-ever major concert at Camden Yards on Sunday, June 12, as part of his 2022 GOT BACK tour. Presented by AEG and Orioles Entertainment, the performance to a sold-out crowd was McCartney's first Baltimore concert in nearly 60 years, as he last visited Charm City in 1964 during The Beatles' first North American tour.

BILLY JOEL: The 2019 Birdland Summer Music Series was headlined by Rock & Roll Hall of Famer and music legend Billy Joel. Billy Joel's July 26 show marked the first ever concert at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The 2019 Birdland Summer Music Series also featured Friday Fireworks & Women of Country Music and Saturday Roof Deck Sessions during home games.

As part of the Orioles' commitment to empowering our youth and strengthening our community, fans had the opportunity to share their love of music by making a voluntary donation to benefit Baltimore-based arts and music education organizations. The Orioles matched to $10,000 in fan donations, with all proceeds benefiting the Orioles Charitable Foundation's Athletes and Artists Play for Kids Educational Scholarship Fund. Since establishing the Athletes and Artists fund in 2015, more than $400,000 has benefited Girls, Inc., Baltimore School for the Arts, Jubilee Arts, the YMCA, and other charitable organizations in Baltimore, Sarasota, and Nashville.



DISPLAYS THROUGHOUT ORIOLE PARK

ORIOLES HALL OF FAME: Located at the north end of the Warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown, N.Y. at the National Baseball Hall of Fame. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famers' likeness and a brief description of their accomplishments.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS: Four-foot monuments, located at the north end of the Warehouse honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Cal Ripken, Jr. (8), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22), and Eddie Murray (33).

ORIOLES LEGENDS PARK: In celebration of the 20th anniversary of OPACY in 2012, the Orioles unveiled larger-than-life bronze sculptures of the six Orioles who have their numbers retired and are National Baseball Hall of Fame members. The sculptures, created by renowned Maryland sculptor Antonio Tobias "Toby" Mendez, are located in Orioles Legends Park.

MID-ATLANTIC SCOUTS HALL OF FAME: A tribute to baseball

scouts over the years, plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

MARYLAND STATE ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME: The names of Marylanders who left their mark in athletic endeavors and have been inducted into the state's Athletic Hall of Fame are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

CAL RIPKEN, JR. SEAT: To honor Ripken's 278th career homer, hit on July 15, 1993, which surpassed Ernie Banks' MLB record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (previously Section 86, Row 4, Seat 10) with an orange seat.

EDDIE MURRAY SEAT: To honor Murray's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996, off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row 7, Seat 23).

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the locations where home runs cleared the right field gate. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, team logo, distance the ball traveled, and date the home run was hit.

BIRDLAND MURALS: In partnership with PNC Bank, the Birdland Murals series highlights Baltimore's vibrant arts community and allows Orioles fans to experience the incredible talents of several local artists.

The Orioles unveiled two murals in 2023, both located in the ballpark. The first was created by SHAN Wallace, an award-winning visual artist, photographer, and educator in East Baltimore. The vinyl mural located on the concourse behind home plate depicts scenes from Baltimore's iconic neighborhoods, while blending in elements form the team's City Connect uniforms. The second mural features block lettering of "BMORE" with a heart representing the "O" in front of a brightly-colored background, intended to evoke joy, happiness, excitement, and fun, while the many bright colors represent the diversity of Baltimore City life.

In 2022, the Orioles added an Oriole Park mural, located near Legends Park and the Bullpen Picnic Area, created by globally renowned artist Logan Hicks. The mural depicts a bustling Eutaw Street, celebrating the more than the then-74 million fans and visitors Oriole Park at Camden Yards has brought to downtown Baltimore since the ballpark opened in 1992. An additional mural lives in the Waverly neighborhood, near the location of Memorial Stadium. Created by Thomas Evans, a.k.a. Detour, and Nether, this mural celebrates the Orioles' connection to the Waverly community.

Two murals were added as part of the project in 2021, including a tribute to some of the most iconic figures in Baltimore's Negro Leagues History designed by West Baltimore-native Ernest Shaw in collaboration with Open Walls Baltimore curator Gaia, and a two-wall mural by local graffiti writer Adam Stab, depicting baseball scenes with the Oriole Bird swinging a bat, playing catch, and cheering. The Negro Leagues History mural can be found in Legends Park, while Stab's artwork is located under the video board between the center field bleachers and Eutaw Street.

In 2019, the first year of the partnership, the Orioles selected local female artists to showcase the city's arts community through the creation of larger than life murals throughout Oriole Park. The female-led projects were part of the Orioles' yearlong celebration of women's equality and girls' empowerment in honor of the 100th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment in August of 2020.

PLAQUES AT ORIOLE PARK: In ceremonies prior to Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Ripken, Sr. It is inscribed: "Cal Ripken, Sr. Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the game's greatest teachers. Coach, manager, and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, "Senior" dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached. He preached "perfect practice, makes perfect" and stressed the importance of being prepared, learning the "right way" and playing to the best of one's ability every inning of every game. We will always remember his devotion to the Orioles, his love of the game, and his many lessons…"

In honor of Earl Weaver's induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, a silver "4" and plaque identifying Weaver's years as manager was added to the Orioles' dugout wall in July 1996, near where the manager traditionally stands.

Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance on August 17, 1999, passing Dennis Eckersley for the Major League record for most games pitched. In honor of his accomplishment, the Orioles installed a plaque with Orosco's uniform number, 47, above the bench in the bullpen.

Prior to the start of the 2024 season, the Orioles renamed the press box, The Jim Henneman Press Box, in honor of the dean of Orioles sportswriters. A beloved fixture in the Orioles' press box since 1958 as both a writer and scorer, "Henny" has been a friend and mentor to countless people in the Baltimore sports community.

Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years; the late Monica Pence Barlow, the Orioles' public relations director and a member of the organization for 14 years; the late Vernon Joiner, longtime press box supervisor; the late John Steadman, former sports editor and columnist; and longtime Orioles public relations director, Bob Brown. Additionally, a plaque in the first base camera well honors longtime team photographer Jerry Wachter.

A plaque in the umpires' tunnel is dedicated to the memory of Ernie Tyler, who for 48 years served as the Umpires' Attendant for the Orioles. Tyler, who's sons Fred and Jim still work for the Orioles, dedicated his life to his job, at one time working 3,819 consecutive games.

ORIOLES CITY CONNECT

There is no one storyline that defines Baltimore. We are a 3,000,000-strong metropolis that will never stop being a small town of neighborhoods and individuals who truly reflect us. Unveiled in May of 2023, this Orioles uniform attests to the power of our diverse narratives, aspiring individualism, and our collective journey

Baltimoreans draw strength from the many stories, moments, victories, and tragedies that have defined our 294-year multi-layered history. A proud, gritty, outspoken community - from Sparrows Point to Park Heights to Hopkins Plaza, the Dundalk Marine Terminal to Mount Vernon, Timonium to Tide Point, and Little Italy to Liberty Heights - that reflects the creativity and resourcefulness of the next generation of Baltimoreans, one whose parents and grandparents poured the steel, repaired the ships, founded the finest universities and greatest hospitals, welcomed the world's immigrants, and integrated the lunch counters.

And so, this O's uniform celebrates the vision this hometown and hometown team share of a colorful and color blind, vibrant, and open community that celebrates our differences and defends equal access to our fundamental American freedoms.

There is no "quit" in this place, and when adversity comes, we just start another rally.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

ORIOLES CITY CONNECT

CITY OF FIRSTS: If you know our history, then you know Baltimore has pioneered many of America's finest innovations. From historical artifacts and industry to institutions and ideas, the desire to create change is in our blood. Nothing is ever surface level with us; we always dig deep. So it comes as no surprise we are the first MLB team to design the inside of our jersey.

BALTIMORE ACROSS THE CHEST: Baltimore stretches fearlessly across the front of the jersey. We're not hiding behind a catchy nickname, and we don't shy away. We are Baltimore. The bold typeface is inspired by the Globe Collection and Press at Maryland Institute College of Art (MICA) and our homegrown arts scene. The speckled details and imperfections represent the shared grit the Orioles and the Baltimore community possess.

THE UNIFORM: From the outside, it looks all black and white. But there's always more to our story. In art, black doesn't exist without color. You can't see what you're not looking for.

Threaded from the artistic tapestry of our City, the palette is like our people: colorful, vibrant and quirky. Whether it's our iconic rowhomes, egg custard or skylite snowballs, steamed crabs, lemon sticks or salt boxes, Fifi the poodle or pink flamingos, the Ravens or the O's, our colors run deep here in Baltimore.

NEIGHBORHOODS: The pattern is a representation of the neighborhoods that shape our City. From the corner stores and barber shops to the schools and the everyday working people in our neighborhoods - it's the neighborhoods that helped build us to be the proud Baltimoreans we are today. The greyscale exterior represents the surface level view people have of the City. Look deeper and you'll find the colorful interior, inspired by Baltimore's arts culture, that highlights the vibrancy of the City. So, roll up your sleeves, dig into our culture, and come see what we're all about.

THE SLOGAN: Originally penned by Baltimore-based poet and author Kondwani Fidel, You Can't Clip These Wings is a melody that arises from the depths of Baltimore's baritone. It's a breathing rhythm that exemplifies the city's perseverance. It is an embodiment of our pride and lets everyone know that Baltimore is all we got, and Baltimore is all we need. You Can't Clip These Wings will ignite hope inside of you; forever reminding that through calm waters or high winds, you will reach the shore. It reminds you why you started the journey in the first place, and what you endured to get here.

It doesn't matter what neighborhood you come from, we're all cut from the same cloth - one way or another. You Can't Clip These Wings is what will keep us forever flying to new heights.

THE SCRIPT B: Pulled from the Baltimore script logo on our road jerseys, this B represents the love we have for our city. Our sleeve patch also features the new script B logo emblazoned atop the neighborhoods pattern, further reinforcing our neighborhoods' significance to the city.

JIM HENNEMAN PRESS BOX

In January 2024, the Baltimore Orioles announced that the press box at Oriole Park at Camden Yards will forever be named the Jim Henneman Press Box in honor of longtime Baltimore sportswriter and official scorer, Jim Henneman.

A Baltimore native, Henneman began his writing career with the Baltimore News-American (then News-Post) in 1958 before being named public relations director of the Baltimore Bullets in 1968, a position he held until 1973. He returned to the News-American as an Orioles beat writer until 1979, when he moved to The Evening Sun and The Baltimore Sun on the Orioles beat from 1980-95, including a year as the Baseball Writers' Association of America (BBWAA) president in 1984.

He served as the primary official scorer at Orioles home games from 1997-2019, and is the author of "60 Years of Orioles Magic," the Orioles' 60th anniversary book published in 2015.

Henneman remains a fixture in the Oriole Park press box, working as a columnist for Press Box and serving as a base of knowledge for all that enter.

Henneman attended Loyola University Maryland (then Loyola College in Maryland) and Calvert Hall College High School. At Calvert Hall, he was a standout pitcher and competed against future National Baseball Hall of Famer and Southern High School star Al Kaline. He also worked in the clubhouse for the International League Orioles at Memorial Stadium, three and a half blocks from his home in the Ednor Gardens neighborhood. At 18 years old, he attended the Orioles' home opener on April 15, 1954, in which they defeated the White Sox, 3-1, in front of 46,354 fans at Memorial Stadium to mark Baltimore's return to the Major Leagues after 52 years.

Henneman has four children, 10 grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: All media credential requests must be submitted through Major League Baseball's online credentialing system. Credentials will be issued in accordance with the Baltimore Orioles Credential Policy and are non-transferable. All requests for single-game credentials must be submitted at least 24 hours in advance. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times. Credentialed media must adhere to the policies below. Failure to comply may lead to credentials being revoked and/or denial for future media access. Any credentials that are not picked up or are canceled by an organization will force the Orioles PR department to re-evaluate the outlet's status and possibly deny any future requests.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: Media must enter the ballpark via Gate E, which is located on the southwestern side of Oriole Park to the left of Home Plate Plaza. Gate E opens 4.5 hours before first pitch for night games, and 3.5 hours before first pitch for day games. Credential pick-up is located at Gate E. Credentials will only be released on an individual-basis and to those with a government-issued photo ID. All bags and equipment are subject to search upon entry and at other points as deemed necessary.

PARKING: Media parking in Lot A is available on a first-come, first-served basis, with overflow parking located in Lots B/C off Lee Street. All media approved for daily credentials will automatically be added to the parking list. Media must give their name and show a photo ID to the parking attendant. BBWAA members are asked to email Orioles PR (oriolespr@orioles.com) in advance when covering games to reserve a parking space.

NO AUTOGRAPHS: Media are forbidden from seeking autographs at any time. Any media member found in violation of this rule will have their credential revoked.

PRESS BOX: The Jim Henneman Press Box is located on the Lower Press Level (2nd floor). Broadcast booths are located on the Upper Press Level (3rd floor) and are reserved for rightsholders or other entities as assigned by the Orioles PR department. Media are expected to follow the prioritized seating positions located on seating charts throughout the press box. Television outlets and still photographers may not film or shoot from the press box without prior permission from the Orioles PR department.

FIELD ACCESS: Media must enter and exit the field through the umpires tunnel. The field is open to media from the time Home Plate Plaza opens until 45 minutes before game time, with the exception of special first pitch ceremonies that have been announced as open to media. Media wishing to be on the field for a pregame ceremony not announced as open to media must receive approval from the Orioles PR department. Media must remain on the warning track and between the two dugouts at all times, and are not allowed on the playing field under any circumstance.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: Only media with MLB, BBWAA, or properly marked, team-issued credentials have access to the clubhouses. Media may only enter the clubhouse through the auxiliary media door, and may not use the main clubhouse entrance. Video cameras are permitted in the Orioles clubhouse prior to and after the game, but are restricted to tight interview shots in front of players' lockers. Tripods and still photography are not permitted without prior permission from the Orioles PR department. The Orioles clubhouse will open each day for media access prior to batting practice and again approximately 10 minutes after the final out. Updates and exact timing will be announced via X, formerly known as Twitter, @OriolesPR. Media are only permitted within the locker room area of the clubhouse. The trainers' area, players' lounge, batting cages, kitchen, showers, and access hallways are off-limits to media at all times. Cell phones may only be used to record audio while in the clubhouse. Media may not use cell phones to disseminate information via text, email, or any form of social media while in the clubhouse, or during the Manager or General Manager's media availability.

CELL PHONES: Cell phones may only be used to record audio while in the clubhouse. The use of cell phones to disseminate information via text, email, or any form of social media will result in the credential being revoked and ejection from the ballpark. Cell phones may not be used to capture pictures or video in the clubhouse at any time. Violators will lose clubhouse privileges.

INTERVIEWS: Phone, in-studio, or sit-down interviews must be arranged through the Orioles PR department by emailing oriolespr@orioles.com. Media are not to contact players directly and may not conduct interviews on the field during stretch or batting practice without prior permission from the Orioles PR department. Failure to comply may lead to credentials being revoked.

MANAGER AVAILABILITY: Manager Brandon Hyde will meet with media in the Auxiliary Clubhouse prior to each game and again approximately 10 minutes following the end of the game. Any changes to the manager's media availability will be announced on X, formerly known as Twitter, via @OriolesPR.

PHOTOGRAPHER INFORMATION

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are not permitted on the field at any time during the game. Photo wells are located at each end of the home and visiting dugouts, and camera positions are assigned by the Orioles photography department. Photographers may work from the stands as long as they are not obstructing the view of fans, but they are not permitted in the first four rows behind home plate. Additionally, photographers are able to utilize the overhangs located on the first and third base sides on the Club Level. A work room for photographers is located adjacent to the press box on Lower Press Level. Once the game has started, photographers may use the entrances/exits outside of the first and third base photo wells. No still photographs are permitted in either clubhouse without permission of the Public Relations Department of each team.

TELEVISION

MASN, the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, has been the exclusive television home for all Baltimore Orioles games since 2007. An independent regional sports network, MASN is owned by the Orioles and Washington Nationals, and provides unmatched access to the action on the field and inside the game.

Every Orioles game is televised in high-definition on one of the network's two channels, MASN and MASN2, with exception to nationally televised games. MASN and MASN2 air throughout an exclusive territory that covers a seven-state region from Harrisburg, Pa. to Charlotte, N.C. All of MASN's cable, satellite, and fiber-optic distributors carry MASN and MASN2 on a consistent channel throughout the season. (Visit MASNsports.com for local listings.)

Fans can follow MASN via @masnOrioles on X, formerly known as Twitter, on Facebook at facebook.com/masnorioles, and via @masnOrioles on Instagram. Roch Kubatko and Steve Melewski cover the team year-round on MASNsports.com and can be followed on X at @masnRoch and @masnSteve.

RADIO

Hearst's 98 Rock FM & WBAL NewsRadio AM/FM serves as the flagship station of the six state, 30-plus station Orioles Radio Network. Fans can hear extensive coverage of all regular season games, including pre- and postgame shows, as well as select Spring Training contests throughout the Orioles Radio Network.

The Orioles' radio rights returned to 98 Rock & WBAL NewsRadio in 2022, which have served as the broadcast home for the Orioles for 44 of the Orioles 71 years in Baltimore, most recently from 2010-14.

In 2010, the Orioles entered a multi-year partnership with WSBA Radio to serve as their affiliate in York, Pa. In addition, members of the military stationed overseas have the opportunity to listen to Orioles games on the American Forces Radio Network.

2024 ORIOLES BROADCAST TEAM

The 2024 Baltimore Orioles Broadcast Team is made up of play-by-play broadcasters Geoff Arnold, Kevin Brown, Scott Garceau, Brett Hollander, Melanie Newman, and Ben Wagner, analysts Ben McDonald and National Baseball Hall of Famer and Orioles Legend Jim Palmer, and reporter Rob Long. The Orioles also welcome guest contributors throughout the season, including former Orioles Brad Brach and Dave Johnson, as well as Orioles Hall of Famers Mike Devereaux, Gregg Olson, and Brian Roberts.

GEOFF ARNOLD
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Geoff Arnold is in his fifth season as the primary radio play-by-play announcer for the Orioles Radio Network, also calling games on MASN. The 2024 season marks Arnold's 12th in professional baseball, including 10 in the Orioles organization, having previously served as Director of Public Relations and Broadcasting for the Frederick Keys, Baltimore's former Class A-Advanced affiliate, from 2014-20. Prior to joining the Orioles, Arnold called games for Kansas City's Class A-Advanced affiliate, the Wilmington Blue Rocks, and Texas' Double-A affiliate, the Frisco RoughRiders.

Arnold also made frequent appearances across multiple ESPN and regional sports networks broadcasting college football, basketball, baseball, and Olympic sports.

He graduated from Dickinson College (PA) in 2010 and currently resides in Maryland with his fiancée, Sian.

KEVIN BROWN
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Kevin Brown is in his sixth season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team and his third as the primary television play-by-play announcer for MASN. Brown began his tenure with the Orioles in 2019 as one of the club's play-by-play announcers on the Orioles Radio Network, while making select appearances on MASN.

In addition to his work with the Orioles, Brown can also be heard broadcasting MLB Postseason games on ESPN Radio. He serves as a play-by-play announcer for ESPN for several collegiate sports, including football, basketball, softball, and hockey. Brown has called the Women's College World Series the past three years. He has also called Little League games on ESPN.

From 2011-17, Brown worked for the Syracuse Chiefs, the Triple-A affiliate of the Washington Nationals, serving as the Assistant Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations from 2011-14, and Director from 2015-17, where he was the lead voice of the team, calling radio and television broadcasts.

Brown graduated from Newhouse School at Syracuse University (NY) in 2011 and currently resides in Baltimore with his wife, Brianne, daughter, Emma, and dog, Shep.

SCOTT GARCEAU
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Scott Garceau is in his 18th season as a member of the Orioles broadcasting team and his 45th year in the Baltimore sports landscape. He rejoined the club in 2020 as a television play-by-play announcer, after previously spending 13 seasons as part of the broadcast team from 1981-92, including the 1983 World Series Championship season. Garceau appears on both MASN and the Orioles Radio Network as a play-by-play announcer and pre- and post-game show host.

A five-time Maryland Sportscaster of the Year award winner, Garceau began his career in Baltimore in 1980 as a sports anchor for WMAR-TV. After 28 years with WMAR, Garceau transitioned to 105.7 The Fan in 2008, serving as an original co-host of the afternoon drive show. The original voice of the Baltimore Ravens Radio Network, Garceau broadcast the Ravens' first 10 seasons, including the 2001 Super Bowl Championship. He has also broadcast college lacrosse and college basketball for ESPN.

Garceau was named the 2023 recipient of the Maryland State Athletics Hall of Fame's John F. Steadman Lifetime Achievement Award, honoring a Maryland citizen whose lifetime career in sports has brought honor and distinction to Maryland and its citizenry.

Garceau and his wife, Georgeanna, currently reside in Fallston, Md. His two married daughters, Kelly and Dani, and four grandchildren also live in Harford County.

BRETT HOLLANDER
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Brett Hollander is in his fifth season as an in-game contributor on both MASN and the Orioles Radio Network, appearing across both platforms as a play-by-play announcer, sideline reporter, and pre- and post-game host.

A lifelong Baltimore resident, Hollander began covering the Orioles in 2008 for CBS Radio. He joined WBAL Radio in 2010 as the host of Sportsline and anchored the then-flagship station's Orioles coverage from 2011-14. Hollander has extensively covered Baltimore sports, ranging from collegiate athletics to the Ravens and Orioles, and has appeared on various local stations including on WBAL-TV and 98 Rock FM. He was named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year in 2015.

Hollander graduated from Dickinson College (PA) in 2007 and currently resides in Baltimore with his wife, Erin, and two daughters, Mae and Violet.

ROB LONG
REPORTER

Rob Long is in his sixth season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team, serving as an in-game contributor and pre- and postgame show host for the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network. Long made his MASN debut in 2009. In addition to his work with the Orioles, Long serves as a host of the Big Bad Morning Show on 105.7 The Fan.

Prior to his career in broadcasting, Long served as a police officer in South Carolina, and was a member of the United States Air Force. A native of Baltimore, Long is also the head coach of the Rosedale Christian Academy women's basketball team.

He currently resides in Essex with his wife, Yedda, and two children, Robbie and Stephie.

BEN MCDONALD
COLOR ANALYST

Ben McDonald joined the Orioles talent lineup full-time in 2018 after spending eight years as a regular contributor on O's broadcasts, having made select appearances on the MASN and the Orioles Radio Network since 2010.

The former right-handed pitcher spent seven of his nine Major League seasons with the Orioles from 1989-95 after being selected by Baltimore with the first overall pick in the 1989 First-Year Player Draft. His career started on a high note, throwing a four-hit shutout in his first career start. He went on to win 40 games over three years, and threw more than 200 innings in a season three times. He finished his career with an overall record of 78-70, including 58-58 with the O's. In addition to his Major League baseball career, McDonald won a gold medal in the 1988 Olympics, picking up two wins for Team USA, and won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award in 1989, given annually to the top amateur baseball player in the nation. McDonald was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008 after finishing his career at LSU with a 29-14 record, 3.24 ERA, and 373 career strikeouts.

McDonald's broadcasting career began in 2003 as a color analyst for Louisiana State University Baseball, his alma mater. In addition to his work with the Orioles, McDonald serves as a color analyst for ESPN and the SEC Network, including covering the Men's College World Series.

McDonald currently resides in Denham Springs, La., with his wife, Nicole. The couple have two children, daughter Jorie, and son Jase.

MELANIE NEWMAN
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Melanie Newman is in her fifth season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team. She serves as a play-by-play announcer for the Orioles Radio Network and appears on MASN as an in-game reporter and host of the pre- and post-game shows.

Since making history in 2020 as the first female play-by-play announcer in Orioles history, Newman has continued to break barriers. On July 21, 2021, she was part of the first all-female broadcast team for a Major League Baseball game, when the Orioles faced the Tampa Bay Rays on YouTube's "MLB Game of the Week." Two months later on September 29, Newman joined Jessica Mendoza in the booth for the first all-female MLB broadcast on ESPN.

Newman has been calling professional baseball games for 10 years. She previously served as the announcer for the Boston Red Sox Advanced-A affiliate Salem Red Sox, where she was a part of the first all-female booth in professional baseball, the Texas Rangers Double-A affiliate Frisco RoughRiders, and the Arizona Diamondbacks Double-A affiliate Mobile BayBears. She also served as a media communications coordinator for the Arizona Fall League.

In addition to her work in Major League Baseball, Newman serves as a host for MLB Network and has made appearances on ESPN, the ACC Network, and BBC. Her work has included serving as a sideline reporter for the World Axe Throwing League, ACC men's and women's championship events, the Big South Conference, and FBS Bowl Games.

COLOR ANALYST

National Baseball Hall of Famer and Orioles Legend Jim Palmer is in his 32nd season as a color analyst with MASN. The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Palmer spent his entire career with Baltimore after signing with the club in 1963.

Palmer made his Major League Debut in 1965 at 19 years old. One year later, he became the youngest pitcher in Major League history to throw a shutout in the World Series, beating Sandy Koufax in Game 2, and the Orioles would go on to sweep the Dodgers for the first World Series Championship in franchise history. Palmer was a member of all three of the Orioles' World Series Championship teams, and went 8-3 with a 2.61 ERA in 17 postseason games. He was the first pitcher in Major League Baseball history to win a World Series in three different decades.

Palmer is known for being one of baseball's premier pitchers in the 1970s, throwing more innings and recording more wins than any other American League pitcher during the decade. Among his numerous accomplishments include a no-hitter against Oakland in 1969, and never giving up a grand slam or allowing back-to-back homeruns in his career.

He finished his career with a 268-152 record with a 2.86 ERA and 2,212 strikeouts. An eight-time 20-game winner, Palmer led his league in innings pitched four times, wins three times and ERA twice. He was named an All-Star six times, including four starts, and is a four-time Gold Glove Award winner.

Palmer was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990. He currently resides in Palm Beach, Fla., with his wife Susan and stepson, Spencer.

BEN WAGNER
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Ben Wagner enters his first season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team, serving primarily as a play-by-play announcer for the Orioles Radio Network, while also making select appearances on MASN.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Wagner spent the previous six seasons as a play-by-play announcer with Sportsnet and the Toronto Blue Jays Radio Network. Wagner handled radio and television broadcast duties for Toronto's Triple-A affiliate, the Buffalo Bisons, for 11 seasons from 2007-17.

He got his start in professional baseball with Philadelphia's Class-A Affiliate, the Lakewood BlueClaws, in 2004. Wagner graduated from Indiana State University where he served as the sports director at WISU Radio for three years, broadcasting baseball, football, and basketball.

In addition to his work with the Orioles, Wagner calls college basketball. He currently resides in Dunedin, Fla.

THE VOICE OF ORIOLE PARK

ADRIENNE ROBERSON
PA ANNOUNCER

Adrienne Roberson is entering her fourth season as the public address announcer for the Baltimore Orioles. She became the first female voice of Oriole Park when she was named to the position full-time at the start of the 2021 season, and is the third active female PA announcer in Major League Baseball. The 2024 season marks Roberson's 23rd in professional baseball, after spending 18 years as the voice of the Bowie Baysox, the organization's Double-A affiliate. During that time, Roberson made several appearances as a guest public address announcer for the Orioles, including Mother's Day Weekend celebrations from 2015-19. She began her career with the Knoxville Smokies, the Double-A affiliate of the Toronto Blue Jays, where she spent two seasons.

Roberson has also spent the last 10 years as a PA announcer for Georgetown University Athletics, announcing men's lacrosse, football, women's basketball, soccer, and volleyball games. Away from sports, Roberson records audiobooks and voiceovers, and works for Archbishop Spalding in Severn, Md., as their Attendance Coordinator.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Roberson received her Bachelor of Science in Communication, Broadcasting, and Sports Management from the University of Tennessee-Knoxville in 1997. She currently resides in Baltimore.

"SARASOTA'S CROWN JEWEL"

The 2024 season marks the Orioles 15th year of holding Major League Spring Training operations at Ed Smith Stadium. "Sarasota's Crown Jewel" was fully renovated in 2011, complete with four practice fields, one practice half-field, a clubhouse, indoor batting cages, pitching mounds, stadium field lights, an electronic scoreboard, concession facilities, locker rooms for umpires, tournament office hub, press box, expansive concourse areas, and ample parking. Its modern amenities, mixed with historical Florida architecture, have helped Ed Smith Stadium truly become "Birdland South."

ORIOLES IN SARASOTA FAST FACTS

- According to a recent independent analysis commissioned by Sarasota County, the Orioles' economic impact in the state of Florida has topped more than $686 million since 2015.

- Since moving year-round operations to Sarasota in 2010, the Orioles have donated more than $3.9 million in cash and in-kind contributions to the community.

- In a 2018 study conducted for USA TODAY, ReviewTrackers, a data-mining firm in Chicago, found Ed Smith Stadium as the top venue among Major League Baseball Spring Training sites in both Florida and Arizona, tracking how fans felt about the facility itself, food and drink offerings, and the overall experience for fans and families.

- More than 160,000 players, families, and spectators have participated in various youth baseball tournaments and games at Ed Smith Stadium and the Buck O'Neil Baseball complex since 2013, averaging 27,000 visitors each year.
